Harrodsburg, the county seat of Mercer County, was founded in 1774 by a stalwart band of pioneers led by James Harrod, of Pennsylvania. It was the only "colonial" city and the first permanent English settlement west of the Allegheny Mountains. Referred to as the "Birthplace of the West," Harrodsburg has a proud and remarkable heritage. From here the pioneers filtered through - conquering the wilderness and going on to populate and settle the rest of the Western frontier. Harrodsburg was first the county seat of Fincastle County, Virginia then Kentucky County Virginia. When Kentucky County was divided into the counties of Fayette, Jefferson and Lincoln, Harrodsburg was the county seat of Lincoln County, which at that time covered over a third of the soon to be state. In 1785 Mercer County was taken from Lincoln and Harrodsburg has remained the county seat of Mercer County. The Kentucky territory became a state in 1792.

Rebecca Worthley wrote the following on 3 June 2010. about the period before 1958...I remember Pop Chasteen so very well. My mother (Violet Young) worked for him and helped take care of Mrs.
Ida. He would go out and sit on the back porch while we cleaned the house for him on Saturdays and do his laundry. Mother would always take Sharon, Virginia and me (Rebecca) with her. Even after Mrs. Ida passed away we still did his chores for Pop. He was a good man with a big heart..
When school came around he would help purchase our clothing for school. I remember one year, he bought me a white fleece coat, black dress with beautiful round polka-dot colors of red, yellow, white, and blue in the dress and a beautiful pair of oxford shoes to wear. I felt like a million dollars when I went to Church that Sunday. Years passed and I graduated from High School and he gave me a Bolivia Watch for graduation. He passed soon after that. I went on to finish college at Trevecca Nazarene College in Nashville, IN He did for all of us children the same. He would tell Daddy "My Young" I will do what I can do to help you family. They always help Me.! Mother loved Mrs. Ida. She always said that she was one of the sweetest ladies that God ever put on this earth.
Mother and Daddy thought there was no one like the Peter's. *Uncle John and Aunt Lizzie", my sister Sharon stayed with "Aunt Lizzie" for years after Uncle John passed away. I am currently trying to find out if anyone knows anything about James and when he went to Sunbright. We loved James and Reba very much. Brother Thomas worked for James in the store after school. He was so helpful for the family. You sure had a nice family. You will never know how much we love and miss them. Many blessings to you.Rebecca. Young 1952 Paul, the picture in the garage was Thanksgiving 1952. This was when Popie was finishing the house on Stop 12. Steve had a monkey that HATED women and he had to get rid of it, back to the Jones. Aunt Peg came and she and Revina got into an argurement over Joyce and the little half bath Mom had in the garage. Aunt Ida said Joyce was playing in the toilet.

The picture of a lot of people was at Garfield Park and it was the church picnic that Mom and Popie attended.

Valarie Chasteen said the following:
This picture(#1) says a lot to me about the love and fun we shared at the cabin with grandma and grandpa. It always makes me smile. My mom reminded me last night that when grandpa bought the boat the steering cables were reversed so that when you turned the steering wheel left, it went right. We actually went out on Cataract Lake in it like that but later he had it repaired.

Generation 2 (con't)

Chester Arthur Chasteen worked hard raising a family during the depression. He met Madie Mae Beam when he was 20 years old. His mother, Ida belle Phelps Chasteen, invited her over for a dinner with a few other church members. Chester was a religious boy, but he had back sledged to the ways of the world. He was a sinner, but after he met Madie he went to church whenever the church doors opened. Ida Belle said he got saved and quit smoking cigars. I'm Chester's son, Paul Chester Chasteen, writing this.

Madie had married Lovell Arnold Beam in 1922. They had a son the next year named Jack Lovell Beam. Four years later on 21 Feb 1926 Lovell died of TB. She got a job at the sanitarium where Lovell was being treated to be near him. Lovell played the piano and one day he passed a church and went in. They needed a piano player so he volunteered. He told them of his illness so they prayed for his healing. He was converted and was baptized. Madie was also baptized. They attended the same church as Ida Belle. After Lovell died mom had met dad at this dinner party in 1927. They were attracted to each other and shortly thereafter they got married and on 17 June 1928 John and I arrived. Eighteen months they had a daughter named Marcene Mae Chasteen. They referred to her as a blue baby, but at the time they were afraid it could be catching so Ida Bell took the twins and didn't give them back until they were 15 years old. Marcene lived for nine months. Years later they learned her heart did not allowed the blood to be purified.

During World War two he worked for the New York Central Railroad Repair Shops in Beech Grove Indiana. He bought three acres of land on South Emerson Avenue about one and half miles from the RR shops. As he could afford it he built three houses. The first one was later referred to as the chicken house. He raised chickens in the first house for the eggs which he sold. Mom would kill the chickens when they stopped producing and sell them. Dad dug a water well and an outside toilet. The outhouse (privy) was well equipped with a Sears and Roebuck Catalog, and it wasn't there to look at. Every Monday mom would the laundry outside in a large cast iron tub and hang it outside to dry. Dad had a large garden and mom would can the veggies. He also worked on weekends for the Railway Express sorting boxes being mailed in boxcars. He also worked for the Barbersol shaving cream company. At the railroad he bucked rivets on the metal boxcars. That was a hot, dirty and noisy job. After the war he was allowed to quit the railroad job.

After the war he had two more sons James Rodney and Stephen Lee and a daughter named Rebecca Ann. He quit the railroad after the war ended and worked as a machine operator for International Harvester where they made truck engines. As time went by he built two more houses each bigger and better that the earlier ones. They all had inside plumbing and inside automatic washing machines and dryers. He retired from there about 1963.

As the children got married and left home things got a bit easier for dad. Rebecca got married in 1949, James in 1952 and Stephen in 1967. A few years later in 1948 he built small cabin near Count Lake near Cloverdale, Indiana. All the grand children would spend time with him at the lake. He got a boat and a moped mainly for the grandchildren.

(The following is from an extended interview between Chuck Griep -husband of Valarie Jean Chasteen- and Madie Mae Moore Chasteen on July 4, 1989)

PART 1: How Madie met and married Lovell Arnold Beam:

Madie and her sister Peg (Margaret) went to see Henry Johnson, a cousin in New Albany, IN. They went to Fountain Ferry park in Louisville, KY where there was music and a dance band. She danced with Lovell Arnold Beam (whose uncle was Jim Beam of whisky fame and his brother was General Roseham Beam during WW-2. He was a bird Cononel at Boca Raton, FL in 1946 ). He took the sisters back to the cousin's house in a car. Later Lovell came to Indianapolis to find Madie. He stood on the corner of Washington and Illinois Streets, hoping to see her. He didn't find her, so he looked in the phone book for her sister Ida. He called Ida who invited both him and Madie over to her house. They dated for just 6 days and then married. Madie was 17. The date was August 2, 1922. They were married at a magistrate's at the courthouse in Indianapolis, IN with Ida signing for Madie. They moved in with his mother in Louisville, KY in a house on Story Avenue. He worked for Ewing's milk company as a delivery man.

Later they moved to 1020 South 2nd Street in Louisville. On November 23, 1923, Jack Lovell Beam was born at home. Dr. Mathews and the mother-in-law delivered the baby.

The last picture show that Madie went to see was at the Kentucky Theater in Louisville--it was "Three Weeks".

Lovell Arnold had TB and was admitted to a sanitorium. Madie got a job there. At this time Lovell had a vision of Jesus and said that he could only get well because of Jesus. They moved to Indianapolis and lived with Madie's sister Ida. Lovell slept on the porch to get more air. Lovell was going to be treated by Palmer's Chiropractic School. On his way to his first visit there, he went into an evangelist's meeting in a tabernacle. They needed a volunteer to play the piano, so he volunteered and they ended up praying for healing for him. He stayed until midnight, worrying Madie to death. They told him that he and Madie should fast and pray and then come back to the next night. Madie didn't want to go because she cussed all day (because the baby was bad "fingered the table" she had just waxed). She had never been to a Pentecostal church before. They want anyway and got saved, but he was not healed. They continued to go to church at the tabernacle.

They heard about another church at the tabernacle, Laurel Street Tabernacle. The people there had had a vision of a young couple who needed help and interpreted this to mean Lovell and Madie. They rented a cottage and furniture for them and got Madie a job. At this time Madie started growing her hair to be a real Christian. Lovell asked her never to marry anyone else. Once while going out to get some water for Lovell, Madie had heard a voice which said "I have many things to tell you, but you aren't able to bear it". Three days before Lovell died, he received the baptism of the Holy Spirit and released her from her promise not to marry again. Lovell died on Feb 21, 1925 when his son Jack was 18 months old. They buried him. Jack was put into formal daycare at $2 a week and Madie had him on weekends.

PART 2: How Madie met and married Chester Arthur Chasteen:

Chester's mother invited a group for a get together, including Madie. Chester and Madie got paired off. Chester's family went to the same church as Madie, but Chester was backslidden and didn't go to church. Madie was taking care of a mentally disturbed young girl for a rich family. After the get together, Chester started showing up at church and Wednesday prayer meeting to court Madie. Madie found out that Chester smoked - it was the last time. They were eventually married in the minister's living room by Brother Osborne on Sept 1, 1927.

PART 3: Chester Arthur Chasteen

Chester worked for the railroad (New York Central - unionized) during World War II - he couldn't quit because of the war. He worked on a 3-man riveting gang. As soon as the war was over, he went to work for International Harvester. They voted in the union after he had been there for six months.

PART 4: The birth of John and Paul

On a Saturday, Madie went on a streetcar and bought ten gallons of pineapple to can on Sunday morning. At 5:30 A.M. on Sunday, Madie asked if Chester had kicked her in the back. Chester went out to find a telephone. He found a total stranger that had a phone and called a cab and the hospital. John Thomas was born on the way to the delivery room at 6:15 A.M. Madie held John while Paul was being born at 6:30 P.M. "Paul had a veil over his face", which meant that he would be smart.

PART 5: A visit to some cousins

Madie's mother Anna Yarbrough didn't let her kids associate with her sister's kids because they were so poor. Once Madie and Chester went to New Albany to see Mary (Yarbrough) Nail and her kids, without knowing how to find them. Madie saw a stranger and thought it was her cousin - it turned out to be George Nail. He told them where he lived. He was hauling groceries in a wagon and met them at home.

PART 6: Some proverbs of Madie's

Slower than the itch    Slower than molasses in January    Went sideways to keep from flying    So old it was growing whiskers

As welcome as the flowers in May    As fine as frog's hair    Sweet one abt 1935 I lived in Burrville, Tennessee with my twin brother, John T., my grandmother, Ida Belle, and my uncle, James Earl. John and I went to the first grade in a small school house. One teacher had four grades in one room. One of our teacher was Reba Goff. She later married my Uncle Jim. My uncle Jim drove the school bus from Burrville to Sunbright to the high school there. I recall walking to school which was about half mile down the road. My grandmother's sister, Lizzy, lived about two miles down the road. Her husband, John B. Peters was the preacher in Burrville. I'm told that he married couples in his front yard. My Great Aunt Lizzy I later learned was named Sara Elizebeth. Her daughter, Orpha Jacks lived a short distance from our house which was refereed as the Mathuew house. I'm told he owned the lumber yard in Sunbright. Orpha had seven children. Burrville had a general store owned by the Greer family. We did not have electricity or phone. We had an outside privy a short distance from the house and a well on the back porch. My uncle Jim drove grandfather's car from Indiana that had wooden spoke wheels. He parked it in a small shed up on blocks. Grandmother baked biscuits or corn bread almost every day in a wood burning stove. We used kerosene lamps for light. We played games like marbles, mumbly-peg and hop scotch. Another game we played used a small box with a small hole in it. The object was to take a small hickory nut holding it near your nose and drop it so it went into the hole.

Years later Uncle Jim bought the Greer General Store. He and Aunt Reba lived above the store. They had three daughters. Carol Anne , was still born. Janis Lynn, and Judy Elaine are the other two daughters. Loretta and I visited him in 1949 when I was discharged from the army. We had a 1-ton 1940 panel truck full of all our belongings. We were moving from Biloxi, Mississippi to Beach Grove. I was twenty years old. We had just gotten married six month earlier. Several years later Grandmother and Grandfather Chasteen bought a small 2-bedroom, shotgun, house across the street from where I lived in the Matthew house. Grandmother passed away in 1954 while I was in Trieste, Italy . Uncle Jim, Aunt Reba, Grandmother and Grandfather are buried in Burrville, Tennessee..

In 1942 my twin brother John and I took a train trip with our grandmother, Ida Belle, from Jeffersonville, Indiana to Knoxville, Tennessee to visit our Uncle Jim and Aunt Reba. Uncle Jim owned a small grocery store there. I was thirteen years old and grandmother had never allowed us to go to the movies. At the Tennessee Theater the movie "Mrs. Miniver" was showing with Greer Garson and Walter Piegion. Uncle Jim intereeded and we allowed to see the movie. The highlight of that event was the pipe organ that rose up from the Orchaster Pit. The music played after the movie filled the entire theater. Years later in 2006 we moved to Knoxville and attended the Tennessee Theater for several organ concert. That theater was built in 1928. Its interior was designed by Chicago architects Graven & Mayger in the Spanish-Moorish style, although the design incorporates elements from all parts of the world: Czechoslovakian crystals in the French-style chandeliers, Italian terrazzo flooring in the Grand Lobby, and Oriental influences in the carpet and drapery patterns. The theatre also featured a beautiful Wurlitzer Organ.

Between 1953 and 1962 James Earl Chasteen owned and operated the general store in Burrville. Before that he operated the Broadway Food Market about 1941 . Not sure when he moved back to Burrville. When he was in Knoxville he drove a taxi cab, taught school, operated a small store. Reba, his wife taught school and worked at Alco Company.

I don't remember a lot about James. He led the singing in the church. and furnished the gas for the lawn mowers that Adam Miller and I used to mow the church lawn. The summer I worked for him was a good experance. It helped me to deal with the public. He taught me a lot about the store buisness. He was a very good person. i used his truck a lot hauling off the trash, delivering groceries. etc. and no drivers license he! he! . His dad stayed at the store a lot. When James got sick I visited him in the hospital in Knoxville, He got better and got to come home but he would make a lot of errors giving people change when they got groceries. I went to Ohio for a couple years and when I got back to Tennessee James got sick again but I wasn't around him very much as I was sick, that is about all on him.

Researched by Paul Chasteen. Paul's Uncle James Earl Chasteen owned the Chasteen store mentioned in the last paragraph. His uncle bought it from Mr .Greer. James is Ida Belle Phelps Chasteen's son.

BURRVILLE, TN

The following is from the book, "A History of Morgan County Tennessee" written by Ethel Freytag and Glenna Kreis Ott.

BURRVILLE

This community was originally called Mount Vernon and its settlement dates back to about 1830. At that time settlers from North Carolina, Virginia and Kentucky came in and obtained one thousand acre grants from the state. Among these early settlers were John GALLOWAY and James PETERS; who took grants joining and covering what is now the community of Burrville. The ten children of the Peter's and Galloway's married and settled near their homes. Other families came in and the settlement grew. Some of these older settlers were: THORTON, JONES, HULL, DAVIS, CROMWELL, HURT, McCORMICK, JOHNSON and ALEXANDER.

Probably about 1860, the Mount Vernon Methodist Church was organized and a log church was built on the site of the present church. The first grave in the cemetery was that of the child of Mr. and Mrs. William DAVIDSON, who was buried during the Civil War. The first Sunday School was organized about 1881 by Mrs. Phenie BABCOCK. In the early days the church services were held when the circuit rider, who had many churches widely scattered, would arrange to come. Among those early preachers were Rev. A. B. WRIGHT and Rev. A.C. PETERS. They were identified with the early church work at Burrville.

The people of the Burrville Community have always stood for education and progress as is shown by the outstanding educational institution. Students came from all parts of the county to the A.B. WRIGHT Institute in 1900.

The first post office was established in 1881 with Charles SKEEN of Scotland as postmaster and the post office was named Skeen. Later it was named Burrville [The people of Burrville wanted to name the post office Mount Vernon but found there was already a Mount Vernon post office in Tennessee]. The mail was carried on horseback from Sunbright once a week.

About 1895, James GREER opened a general store in Burrville.

A 1919-1920 school bulletin gives the following description of Burrville:

"Burrville is a prosperous county town on a good pike west of Sunbright. It was at one time the seat of the A. B. Wright Institute named in memory of Rev. A.B. WRIGHT, a faithful minister of the gospel, who spent his life in the Master's service throughout the mountain sections of Tennessee and Kentucky. Rev. A.C. PETERS, a citizen of Burrville and a minister for forty years or more did more perhaps in his day than any other person for the upbuilding of the church and school at this place. There is a splendid school building large and well furnished. The present high school being established the latter part of the last year, is in the infancy but we have great hopes for its prosperity with the support of the excellent people of this community who have so faithfully stood by the schools of past years".

Burrville is still a small country town. It has an elementary school of 123 pupils and 4 teachers. Two churches - the Methodist and the Church of the Nazarene are located in this town. Burrville has a post office. Merchants licenses were issued this year to: Chasteen's Store, Ashley Store, E.D. McCURRY, one beer license was issued to Ernest FROGG.

I am reminded of my last year as a full time high school teacher. I switched to teaching Industrial arts "SHOP" classes. My classroom was about 5 minutes from the Elkton High School in Virginia. They were 2 period classes. One class I had 5 emotional disturbed students. They kept me really busy and I was happy when only 4 students came to class. My second class consisted of 17 students most of which were "problem students." One little 9 grade black student was so busy one day that I started to watch him closely. I discovered he was making "ZIP" gun. I took it away from him and put it in my shop coat pocket. After he got on the bus to return to the main campus, I discovered he had picked my pocket. I phoned the main campus and they got the gun. My 3rd double period class consisted of 8th grade students. I only had them for 6 weeks. Most of the girls made a gun rack for dad. .I had to be the assistant JV football coach. During the games my job was to make sure we only had 10 players on the field

The United States Army had it's own Army Air Corps until the US Air Force was formed as a separate branch of the military on 18 September 1947 under the National Security Act of 1947 I was in the Army Air Corps so I could get the GI Bill which allowed me to graduate from Purdue Unibersity in 1952. After basic training In Lacklin AFB in San Antonia, I was sent to the army Radar School in Boca Raton Florida. After four weeks as a student there they ask me to become a teacher in the school which I gladly accepted. That is when I learned how rewarding teaching could be.

While at Purdue I took senior ROTC. which paid me $37.50 That was enough mony to pay the rent for a 2-bedroom apartment on campus.. During WW-2 these buildings were military barracks. Upon graduating as a Destinguga Military Graduate I was offered a Regular Army Commission as a Signal Corps Officer. I served 19 more years and retired in 1971. During my last 3 years at the Pentagon I attended American University, worning on my second masters degree, in order to become a certified math and Industrial Arts teacher in high school. In 1996 Idecided to end my teaching career..

The US Army was officially desegregated on July 26, 1948. That was an interesting time. There were white and colored water fountains and rest rooms. that got integrated., too.

Paul and Loretta Chasteen write.

When my twin brother, John Thomas Chasteen, and I were about two years old we were sent to live with our grandparents, James Raymond Chasteen and Ida Belle Phelps. Our new sister, Marcenia, had been born with a medical heart problem and needed constant attention from our mother so it was decided that it would be best for us to be with the grandparents. Marcenia lived for less than a year but John and I continued to live most of the time with our grandparents. We would spend some summers with our parents, but returned to our grandparents. We spent several years in Burrville, TN, where we attended the first grade in a single classroom consisting of the first four grades.

In Tennessee we lived with our Uncle James Earl and our grandmother, Ida Belle Phelps Chasteen. We had a well for water, an outside privy, and no electricity. A radio and the US mail was our connection with the outside world. Our Uncle John Peters, a minister, and his wife, Grand Aunt Sarah Elizabeth (Lizzy) Peters lived nearby. In 1936 we moved to Jeffersonville, IN and rejoined Grandfather, James Raymond Chasteen. Early in 1937 the Ohio River flooded and we were evacuated to the Hyde Park Clark County School building for a few days where we slept on the floor in the gym. We left Jeffersonville in a long rowboat, with about 30 other people, and were put on a train to Indianapolis, IN. John and I went to Junior High and two years of high school in Jeffersonville, IN. In the summer of 1944 we decided to live with our parents. That summer John and I became electrical apprentice for the New York Central Railroad in Beech Grove, IN. I also worked part time for an electrician wiring houses. We attended Southport High School where I graduated in 1945 I started college at Purdue and Indiana Extensions in Indianapolis, IN. Working fulltime at the railroad and going to night school just didn't work for me even though I ended up only working for 6 hours a day. On February 4th 1946 John and I joined the Army Air Corps, We didn't have email. TV was just starting to be popular. My motivation for joining the AAC was to be eligible for the GI Bill so I could get help to finish College. With less than a year remaining of three years of active duty, I met the enchanting girl of my dreams. Never knowing what she was going to say or do next, and not wanting to miss any of it, I decided that it was time to get married. Loretta traveled with her mother by train to Biloxi, MS, where I was teaching RADAR classes at Keesler Field. Captain Chaplin Hope married us on the first day of August in 1948 in the Army Hospital Chapel. Loretta's mother and John were our attendants.

I was discharged from the military on the third of February of 1949. I became the father on June 30, 1949 of Deborah Sue and in September I resumed my education at Purdue University, at West Lafayette, IN, receiving a Bachelor of Science Electrical Engineering Degree in 1952. While at Purdue I joined the Army ROTC and received a Regular Army Second Lieutenant commission upon graduation. The primary reason for taking ROTC classes was for the extra pay, which just paid the rent on a two-bedroom apartment. Our second daughter, Viveca Louise, was born on August 8 in 1951 and in August 1952 I was ordered to active duty in the Army Signal Corps.

My initial assignment was to Camp Atterbury, IN. This was during the period of the Korean Conflict (WAR), but I was lucky. They ordered me to Europe. After four months in Germany, I was reassigned to a United Nations Command in Trieste, Italy for a one-year hardship assignment. The Italian and Yugoslavian government brought their Army Mountain Divisions facing each other on either side of Trieste. It got kind of scary for several months. While in Trieste, I became a father for the third time, Jannette Marie, but didn't get to meet her until she was almost ten months old. After a year in Trieste, I was reassigned to Wuerzburg, Germany where my family joined me. In my twenty-two year military career I had two more one-year hardship assignments. One was in

Heidelberg, Germany upon the construction of the Berlin Wall, and lastly a one-year tour in Vietnam as a Battalion Commander.

While in Germany during 1954 I applied for graduate school, and was accepted in the Stanford University Master of Science Industrial Engineering Degree two-year program. We arrived in Palo Alto, CA for the fall class of 1956 and on the 16 th of October our son, James Raymond, was born. From Stanford I was assigned to Redstone Arsenal in Huntsville, AL during the early and exciting days of satellite and missile development. My final tour of duty in the military was with the Joint Chiefs of Staff at the Pentagon. I started my military career as a ``Private`` and retired as a Lieutenant Colonel in 1971.

Having attended night classes during the last two years of my military duty, I was enrolled in a Master of Science for Teachers program. I began teaching high school math in Woodbridge, VA immediately after retirement from the military. I taught in Virginia for eight years and as we moved from place to place my teaching included computer and shop classes. When I retired from the military, Loretta and I decided that we would have fun doing different things and when it stopped being fun we would do something else. This has worked well for us, taking us to different locations and letting us enjoy our grown children, sometimes from a distance, and our grandchildren, sometimes up close and personal. I have been told that we once actually moved and didn't tell our kids. I'm not sure about that but hey you can't remember everything. In February 1996, I retired from teaching at Forsyth Tech Community College in Winston-Salem NC. It was exactly fifty years since I had begun teaching RADAR classes in the military.

The purpose of above information is to illustrate how the military provided us with a highly rewarding career, which included travel and education and many opportunities that our children would not have had otherwise. Loretta and I are still doing fun things while they continue to be fun and now they include our three great granddaughters.

John and I are still close and visit each other whenever possible and with the present day technology, we are far removed from the communications of our childhood. Now we e-mail daily and talk to each other on the phone at least once a day, unless one of us is out of the country ``having fun``.

THIS LOVE STORY TOLD BY JOHN THOMAS CHASTEEN June 20, 2003

I met Phyllis Hadley 1948 on a blind date our sister Rebecca Chasteen arranged while I was on leave from Keesler Army Air force Base.

This was before the AAF became USAF. We wrote letters that led to my proposal in January 1949 and we were married February 7, 1949.

Generation 3 (con't)

We were married at " Brother Panios" West side Church by his Son Paul Panio and took the Train back to Biloxi, Mississippi and stayed about one year. This is where we bought a used 18 ft. house trailer even before we bought our first used 1950 Chevrolet. We traded the small trailer for a 25 ft new house trailer before we went to Ft. Campbell, KY where we had a facility run by the USAF. We stayed until about September 1952. We Finished USAF Active Duty at Sandia Base in Albuquerque, NM DEC 29. 1963. Our daughter Donna was born Feb 21, 1953. We mover back to Indianapolis, Indiana and built a home at 6600 E. 34th Street. We finished the house in October 1957 and rented the finished house for the next 30+ years. After graduation from Purdue January 1960, we moved to Winston Salem, NC to attend Western Electric School for about 4 weeks before starting work at Bell Telephone Labs in Whippany, NJ. After about 3 years we moved to Chicago area in September 1963 and lived in Bensenville for one year before we moved to Wood Dale, Illinois (DEC 1964 to Sept 2002)

Notes for Margaret Helen Kobernus:

2001 is a long time ago. My sons got after me to go to Grief Support at Willow Creek Church in January 2001. My first husband Bob had been dead since July 1999. I found myself sitting in the dark and was depressed and grieving. The winter months were the hardest. John had started attending Willow Creek church several months earlier looking for a grieving widow so he signed up for the class. At grief John was one of about 8 people at my table. Our Facilitator would ask a question and we took turns answering. One lady would just cry all the time. I thought she had just lost her husband but it was several years. That class helped us talk about things that was bothering us and no one criticized us and understood what we were going through. One day, the youngest man came in and was very upset. Finally told us that he couldn't live the rest of his life alone. We all shared with him. I said that if I found someone, I would get married again. When it was John's turn he said the same thing. Our group had some social time (dinner parties) together and John had the big van and would drive. We both attended the Senior group also and would sit together. The Senior Group had a bus trip up to Wisconsin for a dinner show and went together. He asked me out to dinner and I made the mistake of inviting him in my house. He would leave the house and 5 minutes later, he would call on his cell phone. About a two weeks after our grief support seminar was over we were going out regularly He was invited to a rather fancy wedding for Greg Napier's daughter and didn't want to go by himself. I didn't have a dress I thought was good enough so he took me shopping at Marshall Fields where he bought me a dressy pant suit. That was it, he proposed and I said yes.. We drove up to Great Lakes and bought my engagement and wedding ring. We we married July 8,2001.

2003 children; and what they do for fun. Write back.

Since Rebecca is unable to use the computer, Lester entered the following information provided by her on the 3rd of May 2003.

I, Rebecca Ann Chasteen -Nuetzman -Hixson, was born to Madie Mae and Chester Arthur
Chasteen on the 3rd of November 1931 and I am the only living daughter in the family of five boys.
I was born in Indianapolis, Indiana.

I married my first husband, Clovis Nuetzman, at our home on South Emerson on June 17th 1949. I was 17 years old at the time. We built a home on Earlham Ln., near Plainfield, Indiana, in 1950.
We had 2 children, Janice Lynn born October 20 1950, and Clovis Michael born on October 3, 1952. Clovis, my husband, was sick much of our marriage. He passed away on May 29 1959.

On a trip to California in 1960 I met Lester Hixson at Noble and Mary Ballews home. They were friends of Lester since he was 15 and had ministered in Indiana. I was visiting them with June Pinley and Frieda, the girls I was traveling with, who also were friends of the Ballews. I fell in love with Lester, a single parent with four children: Twins David and Dale who were born September 1, 1950, Bruce born January 14, 1954 and Joni Vay, his only daughter born June 26 1957. We were married in Hayward, CA. on March 3, 1961. We then raised all six of the children as one big family.
We lived in Hayward for 2 1/2 years before moving to Lodi, CA., in the central valley 35 miles south of Sacramento, where we have lived for almost 40 years. Our children grew up and married in Lodi.

Janice married Jeff Torchia, a doctor, and they have two daughters, Melissa Nicole and Marsenne Elizabeth. They live in Halfmoon Bay, CA about 30 miles south of San Francisco, CA. near the ocean.

Clovis is married to Debbie and lives in Springfield, MO. They have one son Steven Michael, 11.

Dale Lee lives in Lodi, CA. He has three children by his first wife Martha; Kevin 31, has three children a son and two daughters who live in Arizona; a daughter has 2 sons who live in Georgia; and a son Jonathan 20, who is unmarried and lives with his brother in Arizona. Dale has a son by his second wife Pam, Michael, who is 15.

David Lynn is married to Gale and has two children Jennifer, 29 who is married to Mark and they have a baby son 3 months old. David's son is Philip, 24 and single. He is in a masters degree program at UP in Physical Therapy

Generation 3 (con't)

Bruce Lester is not married with three sons, Chad 20, Jeremy 11, and Christopher 14.

Joni Vay is married to Allen Scribner and lives in Visalia, CA. He is warden of the state prison there. They have two grown daughters, Tiffany and Heather; neither of the girls is married.

Rebecca and I love to travel. We have been to over twenty countries in Europe, Asia, Africa, Australia, and many island nations. The last few years it has been mostly here in the United States, going to Indiana, Missouri, and Florida. Becky goes to Missouri while I go hunting in Colorado Totally we have six children, fourteen grandchildren, and six great-grandchildren.

Rebecca is 71 years old and Lester is 75 years old

Subject: FARWELL TO MY BROTHER STEPHEN LEE CHASTEEN

I talked with Stephen Lee Chasteen' sister-in-law, Shannon, today. She informed me that my brother, Steve, passed away. He was born on 21 August 1940. He was a soldier, a teacher, and business man in Portland OR. He is survived by his wife, Julie, his children: Scotty, Yolanda, Chuck, and Stephen. Steve and Julie were married on 22 Jul 1967 at the Presidio, San Francisco, CA

I am so happy to have attended Scotty's wedding in Las Vegas last February(2006). Steve invited Loretta and me along with my twin brother, John, and his wife, Margaret for lunch at his RV in Las Vegas. Julie fixed a gourmet lunch. We had a great visit.

Stephen had just sold his business and retired full time. He was an avid golfer and collected baseball cards. When Yolanda was involved with softball, he and Julie were deeply involved with managing the ball league and the concession stand supporting the softball league.

When Steve was 11 years old he spent the summer with Loretta and me while I was attending Purdue University. He would caddy for golfers on the Purdue golf course. He is responsible for me becoming a postage stamp collector. I would ask the foreign students to give me the stamps from their letters for him. I would only give him about 50% of the stamps with the idea of giving the others later. Guess what? Later never came.

For the last several days I have told myself that Stephen Lee can't be gone. He is my youngest brother and I'll miss him forever. I had visions that he would kick dirt on my grave. Several times when we would go to walking events in Vancouver, Washington we would stay with Julie and Steve. They were such a happy couple. Julie would prepare a special breakfast for Yolanda. I remember in the early sixties when we bought a lot on 34th Street in Indianapolis next to the house my twin brother was building Steve came over to help me cut down all the undergrowth. We had long talks about his future. At that time he was pursuing a career as a singer. I can't remember if he volunteered for the military or if he was drafted. In any event he was stationed in San Francisco, California where he met the love of his life, Julie Astudillo.

After the military he went to Indiana University. Later he was offered a teaching job in Maryland. For a few weeks he stayed with us in West Springfield, VA. while he looked for a house for him and Julie. I really treasure those memories.

I now remember we went to visit Steve and we all went to the race track where they were racing the sulky. We paid $2 on each and lost it all. It was so much fun. Julie's dad had an entry which we bet on and it was winning when it blew a tire. It was my plan to visit him next spring as part of our 60th wedding celebration.

My memory of Uncle Steve was just before he went into the Army. I was less than 10 years old so it has a few holes in it. He lived with Grandma and Grandpa on Ritter Street and he was getting rid of his stuff that he couldn't take with him. There were record albums that he asked if I wanted. He gave me several 45s by Elvis Presley and the LP, Mr. Tambourine Man by the Byrds with Bob Dylan. I just about wore them out listening to them but still have them. He kept his car at our house for a while. It was a maroon Mustang and he gave my sisters and me a ride in it. As others have said, I thought he was incredibly cool. He was only 5 years younger than my dad. But dad didn't drive a Mustang!

Here are a couple old good pictures of Steve. Sorry they are so big, even after reducing them. In RAC4.jpg Steve is the closest person on the right side, in front of my dad. It looks like maybe a Thanksgiving dinner in a garage? I'm guessing Uncle Jack took the picture. Anyone with a memory of that event, speak up.

MMM27.jpg is a church picnic picture, a lot of the Chasteen clan are scattered around. I've found Madie, Chester, Rebecca, Jim [my dad], and Steve. Steve is the child 5th from the left in the front row and I'm guessing he was well under 10 years old by the looks of my dad [over on the end of the front row with a grass stain on his knee!].

Thanks for sharing the information about Uncle Steve. I too remember their visit when we lived in Springfield. I think they were at my high school graduation, but maybe they were just visiting at that time.

I remember taking the bus to visit them in Teaneck, NJ when I was in high school. I think this was in 1970 or 1971. I believe they were staying with Julie's parents at the time. I read a book while visiting about a dog or cat that got lost, but made its way back home after a very long journey. It is funny what we remember. I do remember how cool we thought Uncle Steve was back in the early 1960's. He was at Granny C's cabin with us for a visit.

I am sorry that I won't see him again and regret it has been so long since our last visit.

Jann Chasteen Griffiths

I remember Uncle Steve at Grandma & Grandpa's cabin. He brought his guitar and sat and played his guitar and sang to us kids. At least I think he had a guitar. We thought he was "the cat's pajamas." He must have been in his 20s. I thought he was so cool. (I think my sisters did also.) If I remember correctly, he may have been in a band of some kind at that time.

The last time I saw him was when I went to the train station with him in Washington, D.C. (when we lived in West Springfield). I drove his little car back to our house. I was about 17 or 18 and it was an interesting trip driving that sports car through D.C. and back home. I know I was nervous. It may have even been close to rush hour.

I do remember him during my youth while still living in Indiana. He was very handsome and had a beautiful voice. I loved to listen to him sing and can still hear his voice it in my mind. When he and Julie were married they rented a flat in the city (San Francisco) near the Marina and Wharf district. They didn't own a car and walked or took public transit everywhere. I was attending college in Santa Cruz and they invited me for a visit. Uncle Steve met me downtown near his office and took me out to lunch. I remember we were to meet on the square, downtown. I was very nervous, not being a city girl, and afraid I wouldn't be able to find him, but there he was just where he said he would be. He was so handsome in a perfectly tailored suit, briefcase in hand looking very distinguished with his dark hair and goatee. It was a wonderful weekend; we ate, laughed and walked everywhere. They were the perfect couple and it was clear to me that they were very much in love. My husband, Jeff, was an avid sailor and loved boats. Jeff and I took Uncle Steve on a bay cruise in our 23 Canadian Racing Sloop. He loved being out on the water, caught the fever and bought that boat from us. He was passionate in his endeavors and diligently researched everything he took on.

Uncle Steve was a gentle soul. He had a beautiful smile that warmed every room he entered. His laugh was contagious and he had a delightful sense of humor.

These are my fondest memories of my Uncle Steve.

My name is Paul C Chasteen and Stephen Lee is my youngest brother. After his death I requested some of his relatives that knew him to send me their memories of him. the following are those memories.

I talked with Stephen Lee Chasteen' sister-in-law, Shannon, today. She informed me that my brother, Steve, passed away. He was born on 21 August 1940. He was a soldier, a teacher, and business man in Portland OR. He is survived by his wife, Julie, his children: Scotty, Yolanda, Chuck, and Stephen. Steve and Julie were married on 22 Jul 1967 at the Presidio, San Francisco, CA

I am so happy to have attended Scotty's wedding in Las Vegas last February(2006). Steve invited Loretta and me along with my twin brother, John, and his wife, Margaret for lunch at his RV in Las Vegas. Julie fixed a gourmet lunch. We had a great visit.

Stephen had just sold his business and retired full time. He was an avid golfer and collected baseball cards. When Yolanda was involved with softball, he and Julie were deeply involved with managing the ball league and the concession stand supporting the softball league.

When Steve was 11 years old he spent the summer with Loretta and me while I was attending Purdue University. He would caddy for golfers on the Purdue golf course. He is responsible for me becoming a postage stamp collector. I would ask the foreign students to give me the stamps from their letters for him. I would only give him about 50% of the stamps with the idea of giving the others later. Guess what? Later never came.

For the last several days I have told myself that Stephen Lee can't be gone. He is my youngest brother and I'll miss him forever. I had visions that he would kick dirt on my grave. Several times when we would go to walking events in Vancouver, Washington we would stay with Julie and Steve. They were such a happy couple. Julie would prepare a special breakfast for Yolanda. I remember in the early sixties when we bought a lot on 34th Street in Indianapolis next to the house my twin brother was building Steve came over to help me cut down all the undergrowth. We had long talks about his future. At that time he was pursuing a career as a singer. I can't remember if he volunteered for the military or if he was drafted. In any event he was stationed in San Francisco, California where he met the love of his life, Julie Astudillo.

After the military he went to Indiana University. Later he was offered a teaching job in Maryland. For a few weeks he stayed with us in West Springfield, VA. while he looked for a house for him and Julie. I really treasure those memories.

I now remember we went to visit Steve and we all went to the race track where they were racing the sulky. We paid $2 on each and lost it all. It was so much fun. Julie's dad had an entry which we bet on and it was winning when it blew a tire. It was my plan to visit him next spring as part of our 60th wedding celebration.

My memory of Uncle Steve was just before he went into the Army. I was less than 10 years old so it has a few holes in it. He lived with Grandma and Grandpa on Ritter Street and he was getting rid of his stuff that he couldn't take with him. There were record albums that he asked if I wanted. He gave me several 45s by Elvis Presley and the LP, Mr. Tambourine Man by the Byrds with Bob Dylan. I just about wore them out listening to them but still have them. He kept his car at our house for a while. It was a maroon Mustang and he gave my sisters and me a ride in it. As others have said, I thought he was incredibly cool. He was only 5 years younger than my dad. But dad didn't drive a Mustang!

Thanks for sharing the information about Uncle Steve. I too remember their visit when we lived in Springfield. I think they were at my high school graduation, but maybe they were just visiting at that time.

Generation 3 (con't)

I remember taking the bus to visit them in Teaneck, NJ when I was in high school. I think this was in 1970 or 1971. I believe they were staying with Julie's parents at the time. I read a book while visiting about a dog or cat that got lost, but made its way back home after a very long journey. It is funny what we remember. I do remember how cool we thought Uncle Steve was back in the early 1960's. He was at Granny C's cabin with us for a visit.

I am sorry that I won't see him again and regret it has been so long since our last visit.

I remember Uncle Steve at Grandma & Grandpa's cabin. He brought his guitar and sat and played his guitar and sang to us kids. At least I think he had a guitar. We thought he was "the cat's pajamas." He must have been in his 20s. I thought he was so cool. (I think my sisters did also.) If I remember correctly, he may have been in a band of some kind at that time.

The last time I saw him was when I went to the train station with him in Washington, D.C. (when we lived in West Springfield). I drove his little car back to our house. I was about 17 or 18 and it was an interesting trip driving that sports car through D.C. and back home. I know I was nervous. It may have even been close to rush hour.

I do remember him during my youth while still living in Indiana. He was very handsome and had a beautiful voice. I loved to listen to him sing and can still hear his voice it in my mind. When he and Julie were married they rented a flat in the city (San Francisco) near the Marina and Wharf district. They didn't own a car and walked or took public transit everywhere. I was attending college in Santa Cruz and they invited me for a visit. Uncle Steve met me downtown near his office and took me out to lunch. I remember we were to meet on the square, downtown. I was very nervous, not being a city girl, and afraid I wouldn't be able to find him, but there he was just where he said he would be. He was so handsome in a perfectly tailored suit, briefcase in hand looking very distinguished with his dark hair and goatee. It was a wonderful weekend; we ate, laughed and walked everywhere. And now for the rest of the story told by Paul C Chasteen. Her dad, Staff Sergeant Paul C Chasteen, was honorably discharged from the Army Air Corps on February 4, 1949. Her mother, Loretta Mae Biggerstaff Chasteen, and I packed our few belongings into our 1-ton 1940 Chevy Panel truck and drove from Biloxi, MS to Beech Grove, IN. A few weeks later we bought a 21 foot house trailer and parked it in her parents back yard. About 4 am on June 30, 1949 Loretta woke me up and asked me to wash her feet. It took a few minutes before she told me to take her to the Beech Grove St Francis Hospital. I then went on to work at Zenite Metal Corporation where I was an Electrical Lighting Specialist. In those days the husband was not allowed to participate in the birthing process. When I told my boss that I was about to become a father, he told me go back to the hospital which I did. The hospital cost us about $ 40. In August 1949 we took Debbie and our trailer to West Lafayette, IN where I attended Purdue University. In the last 60 years Loretta and I were blessed with three more children. Viveca Louise (August 8, 1951), Jannette Marie (January 17, 1954), and James Raymond (October 16, 1956). We now have 8 grandchildren: Amy Marie Adrian, Benjamin Paul Adrian, Michael William Park, Denise Lynn Park, Zachariah Christopher Orbin, Paul Daniel Chasteen, Luke Montgomery Chasteen, Kathryn Dana Chasteen. We now have 6 great grand children: Sarah Meredith Gordon, Rebecca Kathryn Gordon, Leah Mae Gordon, Isaac Oake-Sewart Chasteen, Tristan Sky Pegnottga, Sage River Pegnottga Now you know why I am such a happy person and why I want to celebrate Debbie's 60th birthday.

Deborah Sue Chasteen Adrian remembers Christmas during the 1950s and 60s in this email in December 2010.

I was little and we used to go downtown to Monument Circle and look in all the store window decorations at Christmas time? I remember going with Grandma B, too. Ayres and Blocks had moving things...like reindeer and Santa's elves. That was fun. It didn't take much to keep us kids happy.

Remember when we girls would go through the Sears catalogs and pick one thing off of each page. And how we'd clean our rooms (don't look under the bed!!!) on December 12th because Santa would stop by and put treats in the shoes we left outside our door. Did we ever put all the shoes we owned outside of there. And remember when we had a big box of chocolates and every night in December, we'd get one?

And remember the Advent calendars, homemade cookies and stockings with our names on them to hang anywhere to find. And remember, we'd always get an orange in the toe of the stocking.

I remember doing that for Amy and Ben, too...the orange in the stocking. Once Amy said, "Every year there's an orange in bottom of the stocking." Oh, and a lot of times there's be that little variety box of different flavored lifesavers. My favorite was Chocolate Mint.

I remember stringing popcorn, drinking hot cocoa and listing to Christmas music. Christmas is so fun when you're little or are around little kids.

What does everyone else remember about Christmas when we were little? Love to all and to all a good night, Deb It's not really night now. In fact, I'm still at work, but it sounds good.

How Amy Adrian met Bryan James Stephenson

Bryan and I met in 1999 at a publishing company where we both worked. I thought he was cute, and decided to find out what we might have in common. I discovered that he was also a vegetarian, listened to NPR'85 and ate the same Clif Bars that I did. (A vegetarian, too! How should I proceed to get to know him?) Well, the next thing I found out about him was that he was married, so that put an end to that. I had no interest in chasing after a married man. Later that year he and his wife moved to Chicago so that she could pursue a job there. After six weeks, the day after his birthday, she told him she wanted a divorce. He returned to Indianapolis and got his old job back. He was pretty depressed for a couple months, and so even though I was a little excited to have a second chance to get to know him more, I knew that the timing wasn't right. Several months went by, and it was now 2000. I decided that maybe it wasn't meant to be with me and Bryan, and decided to put a personal ad in our local newsweekly. (I hadn't had good results several years before when I had placed a personal ad, but I thought what the heck. The ad is free, and finding another vegetarian in Indianapolis is difficult.) So I placed the ad, but then had this fear that Bryan would see it and respond. It's not that I didn't want him to ask me out, but I just felt that I would be embarrassed to have him call and then recognize my voice. I imagined him stopping by my cubicle saying, hey, I called this personal ad and realized it was you. (It doesn't sound so bad now, but at the time I thought it would be painfully embarrassing.) I decided that the best way to handle it would be to stop by his cubicle and casually mention that I had placed a personal ad. (I don't know how I thought this was better, but at the time I did.)

It was early March, and my mom happened to be stopping by my work that day. After giving her the grand tour, we were sitting in my monochromatic cubicle and I was letting her in on the details of my conversation with Bryan earlier that day, how I told him about the personal ad that I'd placed. It was a Friday, during the last half hour before quitting time, and as we chatted away my work phone rang. It was Bryan.

I told him that my mom was there, and I talked for a minute or so about taking her around to see the place. He somehow managed to transition to what he must have been a little nervous to say, which was that we seemed to have a lot in common, and maybe we should go out sometime. I put my hand over the phone and relayed to my mom what he had said. She and I were all giddy and silly, smiling and acting like we were in some teenage romantic comedy. I don't remember exactly what I said, but it was a yes.

Either that weekend or the following we went to have our first date at a Greek restaurant in Broad Ripple, the Parthenon. Later that year we moved into an apartment together. Next year we will celebrate our ten-year anniversary, ten years as a couple since our first date at that little Greek restaurant. What will the next ten years bring? Let me look into the Magic 8-Ball'85 Do you see a house? The Magic 8-Ball says, "Without a doubt." Maybe a dog or two? 8-Ball says, "Signs point to yes." Travel to distant lands? (Perhaps the 2012 London Olympics?) "Reply hazy. Try again." How about love, support, and encouragement? Do you see more for the next ten years? "It is decidedly so."

Viveca Louise Chasteen Mitchell Park

I was born August 8, 1951 in Indianapolis, Indiana to Paul and Loretta Chasteen. My father was in the Army, so we moved every one to three years. I lived in many states as well as in Germany twice. I ended up going to four different high schools. I have an older sister, Deb, a younger sister, Jann, and a younger brother, Jim. At eighteen, I got married. At that time, we lived in Northern Virginia. I had my daughter, Denise, when I was 19 and my son, Michael, when I was twenty-one. You might say that I literally grew up with my children. I was only married for five years and then separated from my husband. Within two years, I met and married my current husband, Paul. We met at the Social Security office where we both worked in Alexandria, Virginia. Within a year of our marriage, we moved to Salisbury, Maryland. We chose this area since it was less than thirty minutes from Ocean City, Maryland, and I also had a girlfriend who lived nearby. Three years was all I could take of the small-town atmosphere, and we moved to Winston-Salem, North Carolina, where we lived for nineteen years. My children grew up and left Winston-Salem. After getting out of the Navy, my daughter, Denise, settled in the West Palm Beach, Florida area to be with her fianc'e9 and go to school. In March of 1999, she and her then husband, Ken, made me a grandmother. Thankfully, by the time my granddaughter, Sarah, was seven months old, Paul and I were able to move down to Florida. We now live in Jupiter. We live only 7 miles away from our granddaughter and we are in heaven. Denise and Ken have given us another granddaughter, Rebecca, in November 2002. Our son, Mike, got married May 2002. He and his wife, Mai, live in Asheville, North Carolina. We are hoping that our son, Michael and his wife, Mai, will like it here enough to move down someday!

We moved to Knoxville, TN in hopes that Denise & her family would be following shortly. After a 2-year wait, we decided to move back to Florida. We now live in Palm Beach Gardens. We live only 3 1/2 miles away from our 3 granddaughters and we are in heaven. Our son, Mike, got married April 18 2009. He and his wife, Dela, live in Sylva, North Carolina.

I am happily married to a wonderful man. I live in a Victorian home that was built in 1903 with my new husband, Mike, and a 70-pound Rottweiler, Dax, and my cats Kimba V and Little Bit

Some personal facts: I am a 5'7" tall, with brown hair and green eyes. I am a serious practitioner of Zen Buddhism. I eat a raw vegan diet and am a supporter of many social and environmental organizations.

I am an avid hiker and enjoy backpacking, biking, and snowshoeing. Writing, reading, and music are some of my main interests. I couldn't wait until I retire in 2010 to start doing the things I had dreamt about doing, so I started taking piano lessons in January of 2000 and ran my first marathon a few months later in May; I am currently running two marathons a year to achieve a personal goal of completing a marathon in all 50 states.

I love my job as the Fisher House Program Director in Denver, but plan to retire from the federal government in January. My 1st goal is to do a through hike on the Appalachian Trail, starting April 1, 2012. I am also looking forward to doing some serious writing, reading, photography, and watercolor painting.

My son, Zachariah, lives in Nashville, TN with his beautiful wife, Nancy. They share their lives with my grandchildren, Echo Elizabeth and Loki Michael, and a cute little dachshund, Ruby.

Both were very musically gifted, Clovis was the lead singer in the Gospelaire Quartet and my Mother sang in a family trio with two of his sisters. My father died in May of 1959 and my mother remarried in March of 1960 to Lester Hixson. Upon my mothers marriage we relocated to Hayward, California, residing there until 1962. We then moved to Lodi, California when my parents bought and operated the Viking Motel for about two years. Lester obtained his real estate and brokers license going into the business of building and selling homes with his brother Walter. I attended high school in Lodi and graduated from the Canyonville Bible Academy located in Oregon in June of 1968. I then attended Bethany Bible College in Santa Cruz, Calif. for two years. ~~~~~
How We Met Marsenne and Dan met while at a mutual friend's birthday party in the summer of 2007 Marsenne had been hearing about the arrival of "the guys", but did not pay much attention until she saw Dan. She thought he was soooo cute and was instantly interested. She had to wait 10 minutes before her roommate and friend, Emily, introduced her to Dan after realizing they had not met. Of course Marsenne acted like she didn't notice but was secretly really happy to finally get a chance to meet and talk with Dan. Apparently, while all of this was happening with her, Dan walked into the party late (as usual) and noticed some new faces, one in particular. For some reason he was too shy to introduce himself right away, as he usually would. After waiting a little while he sat down next to his friend Emily to say hi, well aware that the girl he had his eye on was sitting on the other side of her. Realizing they hadn't met yet, Emily introduced him to the girl named Marsenne.

When We Got Engaged July 26, 2008 How It Happened Dan picked Marsenne up for lunch one Saturday (after she had repeatedly changed her mind on what time she would be ready; unbeknownst to her she had continuously sent him away as he was trying to be ontime. However, since he was also trying to be stealth he played it off like he had not left home yet). Upon his arrival he nonchalantly asked her if she would like to go to lunch in Davenport (south of Half Moon Bay). She agreed. On their way down the coast on Highway 1, Marsenne realized that they would pass their "special spot": a place near San Gregorio Beach where they watched a Lunar Eclipse together at the beginning of their relationship. Marsenne suggested they pull over, since they had not been there since the eclipse. Dan willingly agreed since this was his plan all along; however, with Marsenne thinking it was her idea to pull over she would be even more clueless about his big plan. As they got near the beach, Dan pulled the car over to their spot and asked if Marsenne would like to get out. As she stepped out of the car, Marsenne heard Dan pop the trunk and looked back to see what he was doing. She playfully asked him if he was getting a blanket (since they had so many blankets while watching the eclipse- it was cold that night!), "Actually, I am." he said. Marsenne saw the blanket that she had learned about only a month ago. It was at that moment that she realized what was happening. The quilt was one that Dan's Grammy Jennie had made for him as a High School graduation gift. On the blanket were some "rules." The last rule read: "Only share it with the girl you plan to marry". Dan walked up to Marsenne, wrapped the infamous quilt around her shoulders and hugged her saying, "I love you." Dan proceeded to tell Marsenne the sweetest things (none of which either can remember as it was all a blur), then got down on one knee, pulled a ring box out of his back pocket, opened it to reveal a beautiful diamond ring and excitedly asked "Will you marry me?!?!". Marsenne said "YES!" jumped up and down and Dan asked her if he could put the ring on her finger and jokingly asked, "how would you feel about calling me your husband?" Marsenne smiled since 333 days earlier Dan had asked, "how would you feel about calling me your boyfriend," on the same spot. Dan then pulled out a bottle of sparkling cider and two wine glasses and they had a toast! They continued on to Davenport for a celebratory lunch and then to both of the families houses to announce the engagement!

Angela Chasteen Burden writes

I have been married to Dennis Burden for the past 21 years. It was a second marriage for both of us. Each of us had 2 daughters from previous marriages. His daughters' names are Gina and Michelle Burden. Gina has a son named Nicholas Turner and Michelle's son is named Emilio Morales. They both live in Indianapolis and have recently purchased homes. My three daughters are named Vanessa, Jessica and Katrina Koepke. My first daughter's name is Jessica Louise Koepke. She was born October 4, 1976 at Bitburg AB, Germany. She was diagnosed with acute monocytic leukemia and died May 11, 1977 at Walter Reed Army Medical Center, Washington D.C. Vanessa recently graduated with an English degree from IUPUI and married David D'Amico. They live in Toronto, Canada where David is from and is employed by Sun Microsystems. Vanessa is going through the process of applying for permanent status. Then she can work and would like to teach English as a second language. Currently, she volunteers at an after school program tutoring children. David's degree is in film and he makes digital videos (I think) at Sun. Katrina is the baby at 22 and joined the Air Force October 1, 2002. She wanted to at 18, but I talked her out of it. When she broached the subject at 21, I felt she really wanted to take this path and supported her in her decision. She is in munitions. She delivers the bombs to the flight line where someone else loads them. She carries a side arm and I know she is a good shot. She enlisted for 6 years and wants to make a career of it. Her hobby is art. I have several of her paintings around the house. She is working on one presently, but I do not know the subject. That's the kids. At home in Plainfield, Indiana, Denny and I have 3 stray adopted cats. Denny is close to retirement. He is 56. He is a union electrician and taught at the apprenticeship for 14 years. I am a licensed clinical social worker, which means I have a masters' degree in social work. I have been doing therapeutic contractual work the past year (court ordered children and families, EAP stuff, parenting classes, anger management groups). Prior to this past year, I have worked in mental health centers, non-profits and state government. I am 49. Time has flown by. I am very curious to know what kind of work my cousins are engaged in; if they have children; and what they do for fun. Write back.

Do you want to add children to this? i.e. Jessica Louise Koepke, born October 4, 1976 Bitburg AFB, Germany; deceased May 10, 1977 buried Garland Brook Cemetary, Columbus, Indiana. Vanessa Yvonne Koepke (now D'Amico and her husband David D'Amico? married February 7, 2003 Toronto, Ontario, Canada city hall) born April 11, 1978 Walter Reed Army Medical Center, Washington D.C.; Katrina Marie Koepke born March 22, 1981 Johnson County Hospital Franklin, Indiana. This could go on and on, couldn't it?

My update is divorced Dennis Burden on 10/30/07 and married retired Commander Ray Nobles on 11/11/07.

abt 2002 I'm Valarie Chasteen Griep , second daughter of James Rodney and Mona Chasteen (James is son of Chester and Madie). Born in Indianapolis, I'm 45 and have lived in Minneapolis, Minnesota for the past 20 years. Married for 25 years to Chuck Griep, with 2 sons, Alex and Peter. We've been Catholics since Alex was born.

Chuck was born in Miami and we met while he attended Georgia Tech and I was at a Baptist college in Atlanta, GA. Chuck is a software engineer for Unisys Corp. (originally Sperry Corp). He's a great reader, loves learning, hiking/camping?very introverted. His first job out of college led us to Orange County, California but at the first chance he transferred to Minnesota. It's a friendly, family oriented state even if it does get mighty cold.

Alex is our oldest son and is 15 yrs old in 9th grade. He plays saxophone (like his mom did in school), just joined the marching band, wants to be a writer, loves acting (Muff Potter in Tom Sawyer and the Tin Man in Wizard of Oz), does great in school if he remembers to turn in the work he does. Alex is being confirmed at the end of April.

Peter is 14 yrs old, in 8th grade, and a lot like his dad's temperment?quiet and thoughtful. He plays french horn and piano quite well and also joined the marching band playing the mellophone. Also a reader, Peter enjoys hiking also.

As for me, I'm currently taking some time off from the daily grind, although I'm finding that I'm a pretty tough taskmaster to myself. I've always worked for large corporations--Sperry, Honeywell, American Express--in financial or technical roles. I'm a certified project manager, have a MBA, and have published papers and articles nationally. After leaving American Express over a year ago, I started going some independent consulting but the market is slow now and I'm not very busy with it. I am developing a project management class for a local university and will teach it online in the fall.

These last 10 days we were on a trip to the Gila Wilderness in New Mexico backpacking and hiking. It was exciting as the trail crossed the Gila River 29 times in 6 miles?we got wet! We backpack a couple times a year. In between, our goal is to hike all the Minnesota State Parks which is about two-thirds complete. This summer we'll definitely hike more of the parks on the famous north shore of Lake Superior and probably go back to Isle Royale National Park in the lake to backpack like last year. Our hope is to get the boys into college, sell our house, buy an RV, and roam the west, especially New Mexico and Arizona. I'd like to buy a little land in the piney woods of NM for a home base. I'm Valarie Chasteen Griep, second daughter of James Rodney and Mona Chasteen (James is son of Chester and Madie). Born in Indianapolis in 1957, I've lived in Minneapolis, Minnesota since 1982. Married since 1977 to Chuck Griep, with 2 sons, Alex and Peter. We've been Catholics since Alex was born.

Chuck was born and raised in Miami in 1956 and we met while he attended Georgia Tech and I was at a Baptist college (now closed) in Atlanta, GA. Chuck is a software engineer for Unisys Corp. (originally Sperry Corp). He's planning on retiring at 55, in 2011. He's a great reader, loves learning, hiking/camping'6very introverted. His first job out of college led us to Orange County, California but at the first chance he transferred to Minnesota. Chuck has two Master's degrees in Computer Science/Linguistics and Library Science. He and I own Harley Davidson motorcycles and do a lot of riding in the warm months in Minnesota.

Alex is our oldest son and was born in 1987. He played saxophone (like his mom did in school), was in the marching band, wants to be a writer, loves acting (Muff Potter in Tom Sawyer and the Tin Man in Wizard of Oz and some in college). Alex attended the University of Minnesota at Morris and graduated in 2010 with a degree in English. He's currently looking for a job, perhaps teaching English in China. He's active in leading service learning projects with high school and college students through an organization called Students Today, Leaders Forever.

Peter was born in 1989 and is a lot like his dad's temperament'6quiet and thoughtful. He played French horn and piano quite well and also joined the marching band playing the mellophone. Also a reader, Peter enjoyed movies, and computers. Peter left college after 3 years and moved to Los Angeles for a few months. On his return to Minneapolis, he joined the Marine Corps and is currently in boot camp.

As for me (Valarie), I graduated high school in 1975, married in Chuck 1977, and graduated college in Miami in 1980. We moved to Irvine California for almost 2 years where I worked for a semiconductor manufacturer as a cost accountant. When Chuck transferred to Minneapolis, I got another accounting job at Sperry Univac in their semiconductor plant. Somehow I switched into computer programming and got my Master's degree in business/information technology from the University of Minnesota. I worked at a project manager for 11 years at Honeywell and 4 years at American Express Financial Advisors (Ameriprise). After leaving the corporate world, I started my own consulting company and worked several years with Best Buy as a client. I'm a certified project manager, and teach business and technology classes at the University of Minnesota and Metropolitan State University.

Charles "chuck" John Griep and Valarie Jean Chasteen had the following children:

- i. ALEXANDER JULIAN<sup>5</sup> GRIEP was born on 15 Oct 1987 (Burnsville, Dakota,Minnesota, USA).

Notes for Alexander Julian Griep:

for the ceremony and we had a great time. One down. Unfortunately the other son, Peter, is giving us some trouble right now. He's run off to Los Angeles and isn't working but wants us to support him. As parents we don't want any harm to come to him but sometime soon he's got to figure out that `he who does not work, does not eat'. He keeps saying his nuclear option when all else fails is to join the Army but he knows nothing about what that would entail'85nor do we"

Alex is 24 this month, October 2011. He graduated from the University of Minnesota Morris in 2010 with an English major and almost a Theater minor. He worked at Minnesota's Catholic Youth Camp this past summer as a counselor, making it his fourth summer total as counselor (previous three were in far western North Dakota's Badlands Ministries). He got a job teaching English in China at Wuyi University through the Maryknoll China Service Project. Maryknoll is an organization of Catholic brothers with a missionary focus. Alex is not a missionary or ordained in any way. But he is doing the best kind of evangelization, in my opinion-the good karma kind'85just being a good guy going about his business and if anyone asks, he happens to be a Catholic Christian. He also teaches young children on Saturdays as a volunteer. He lives in Jiangmen on the Pearl River, about an hour from Hong Kong. He'll be there for the school year then can sign up again if he wants. We Skype with him once a week and got a tour of his apartment last time. He's having a ball!

- ii. PETER CHARLES GRIEP was born on 16 Mar 1989 in Dakota, Minnesota, USA.

The following is told by Peter's mother, Valarie Chasteen Griep: Peter is 22 as of October 2011. He went to college at Michigan Tech in Houghton, MI and a year and a half at University of Wisconsin-River Falls. He didn'e2'80'99t have a clear goal of what he wanted to do so he didn'e2'80'99t do well academically. He quit and tried to get a job but couldn'e2'80'99t find anything other than manual labor so he took off for Los Angeles (no better result), then Indiana to Angi'e2'80'99s house (no better result). Evidently, he'e2'80'99d had the idea in the back of his head that he could join the military as a last resort and see the world. This seemed like the right time so he was sworn in early September in the Marine Corps and took off for boot camp in San Diego in late January 2011. He graduates from his MOS school as a data network analyst (MOS 651) October 21 and will come home until he ships to Okinawa early next month. He just got promoted to Lance Corporal a month early and he'e2'80'99s really enjoying being a Marine so far. Did you hear he broke his wrist playing dodgeball in PT? That'e2'80'99s a good reminder (as if I needed one) to never play dodgeball with Marines!

Generation 4 (con't)

I'e2'80'99m so happy that both guys [Peter & Alex] have some independence and are enjoying their work. We have a good relationship and are really proud of who they are as adults.

Ken and I have been married since May 3, 1997 and have been "in love" for 11 yrs altogether. We met while serving in the United States Navy in Great Lakes, IL in February 1990. We have 2 beautiful daughters, Sarah and Rebecca, and we reside in South Florida. Ken is a dedicated husband and father, and practices law at an insurance defense firm. He is an avid runner, cyclist and swimmer and currently training for a half-marathon! I am fortunate to be home with my girls as a stay at home/homeschooling mom! Before coming home full-time in June 2002, I was an elementary teacher in the public schools. I taught 1st, 3rd and 5th grades. I loved teaching itself, but my days were mostly spent dealing with a lack of respect for authority and the discipline issues that ensued. I also longed to be home with my then 3 yr old daughter, Sarah, as I have always aspired to be an at-home mom! I am very blessed to be able to live my dream!! I am also a runner (having inspired Ken after running my first 5k), and am also training to run the same half-marathon! Our family attends Christ Fellowship church and we enjoy the many friends we've gotten to know over the years in our church family

Denise Park Gordon 20101 wrote the following: Because of you and grandpa... I am such a country girl at heart!! As my passion in the kitchen has deepened through my food blogging, I realize more and more where that passion originated. Spending time in the kitchen with YOU!! I love you so much grandma... and I really hope that I get to spend more time with you this coming season down in Florida. As Leah Mae gets older (and now that the craziness of her helmet appts have subsided)... I am hoping to carve that time out. I'm glad that Sarah has been able to spend quality time with you & that she has really picked up on the crocheting. She seems really talented. She mentioned (I think) quilting... and if that is something you could teach us both I would really LOVE it!! Maybe 1 night every week or so, we could come over from 7:30-9:30 for a quilting class...it wouldn't have to be every week or always such a long period of time, but I figured we could chat and catch up too.

The more I think of it, the more I know we have in common. And you are such a wealth of information. How I wish I could spend some time up in the mountains w/ you all this summer...in the actual garden with grandpa learning. Is this really your last summer up there? Leah will be 3 1/2 next summer & the girls (12 and 8)....they would be good ages for me to visit...and we could be helpers and not wearing you all out ;)

If you get your hands on any pictures (scanned) that you can email me at some point...i am on the lookout for pics of your land/scenery in WV or shenandoah, VA or midland. Midland and WV are the two places I have SO many memories, but looking at the pics will bring back so many more. I am SO glad you all invested in our lives....things were tumultuous there while we were young, but you and grandpa were the stabilizers.....I could always sit in grandpa's lap (since my dad was out of the picture). my dad paul did the best he could, but he was not at all affectionate.

Lately as I read other food blogs and see the connections they have between family and food, I realize how little of that I had in my actual house. All my connections with food, meals, family sitting down & eating at the same time, preparing meals together...have come from you and the other families I spent time with (Comers, Rosens, etc). That is where I got any cooking experience I had. Most of my memories of home (of food) involve tv dinners, canned foods, microwaves, and fending for ourselves the majority of the time. So though I've added meals I could prepare over the year, and I have always preferred inventing them as I go along....I have really taken off these past 8 yrs that I have been home with my girls. Having all day access to my kitchen, and family to feed (that always seem to be hungry) have really given me a chance to take flight. I love it!! I'm so glad you guys are right in my neighborhood. THANKS so much for your help with the girls. We are BLESSED to have you both so close. LOVE YOU!!! Denise

- i. SARAH MEREDITH⁶ GORDON was born on 03 Mar 1999 in West Palm Beach, Palm Beach, Florida, USA.

Notes for Sarah Meredith Gordon:

Sarah is 5 1/2 yrs old and her birthday is on March 3, 1999. Sarah "officially" started Kindergarten this school year (August 2004) but has been homeschooling her entire life! She is very bright, inquisitive, energetic and has a great sense of humor. She is also very outgoing and makes friends wherever she goes! She craves knowledge and absorbs everything like a sponge. Everything we have done so far has been done in a very relaxed and informal manner. She is a very good sight word reader though we also work on phonics. Sarah also loves arts and crafts, and she recently made her first beaded bracelets all by herself. Sarah started soccer over the summer and loves it. Ken used to play soccer so he is able to encourage her and help her practice her soccer skills. She is excited to start up with her first soccer team on August 21st. Sarah will also be participating weekly in AWANA at our church beginning in September.

Generation 5 (con't)

- ii. REBECCA KATHRYN GORDON was born on 14 Nov 2002 in West Palm Beach, Palm Beach, Florida, USA.

Notes for Rebecca Kathryn Gordon:

Rebecca is 20 months old and her birthday is November 14, 2002. Rebecca is a very fun-loving, bright, and energetic toddler! She loves to play with her sister Sarah, and do anything big 'sis is doing. Her communication skills are unbelievable, and everyday we hear her start to put words into short sentences. Her most recent sentence is "Look mama or Look Dada" and she repeats it over and over again until you look! New words are added to her vocabulary everyday. She loves Care Bears and calls them "babies." She loves to play with "babies" and dolls, play in their pretend kitchen, work with puzzles and shape sorters, playdoh, play ball, play in the sandbox, color, look at books, listen to books, and too many things to list. Like her sister, she has a great sense of humor as well! Both girls are so much like their dad in that respect!

- iii. LEAH MAE GORDON was born on 17 Jan 2008 in West Palm Beach, Palm Beach, Florida, USA.

He married Dela Siobhan O'Neal, daughter of Donald Patrick O'Neal and Moya Frances Moran on 18 Apr 2009 in Wrightsville Beach, SC. She was born on 24 Jan 1977 in Sylva, Jackson, North Carolina, USA.

Notes for Michael William Park:

Mike & Dela's Love Story

Mike met Dela on Saturday October 13th, 2007 in Sylva, North Carolina. Mike had a buddy, Ray, in one of his education classes whose wife, Nancy, had a friend named Dela.

The initial plan was to have us both over to their place for dinner and cards. Then, Nancy decided that she better screen Mike first and make sure that he was worthy of meeting Dela. At the last minute, however, Dela decided to come and Nancy prepared delicious vegetarian lasagna. It was still light out when Mike arrived. Dela was wearing a purple shirt and blue jeans. Mike was immediately smitten and Dela returned his attention by flirting while they were playing post-dinner games. Dela was also impressed how well Nancy's daughter, Kennedy, took to Mike and his love for pets. Dela gave Mike a ride to the bottom of the Crawford's steep driveway. They both said good night. Dela turned right on the four-lane and Mike turned left.

A few days later, Mike took Ray to Guadalupe's, a local restaurant, and bought him some goat in exchange for Dela's phone number. Mike called Dela on Tuesday and she returned his call on Thursday but got Mike's voicemail. They were finally able to talk, when Mike called back. Dela was at the Fun Factory where she was hanging out with Nancy, Kennedy and Kennedy's brother, Ty, so it was a little noisy. Mike and Dela made plans for Saturday, October 27th.

Mike and Dela met at Bogart's (formerly Grandma's Pancake Barn) on East Main Street. Mike was the first to arrive and was holding the column up in front of the door. Dela would later confide that Mike was not unpleasant to look at in his sunglasses and blue button up. They had a nice meal in the backroom with a rowdy group of Mennonite folks who had three tables pulled together. Mike learned of Dela's unrelenting passion for sweet tea.

After dinner, they took Dela's car about a quarter of a mile to the Quin Theatre where they saw a forgettable cop drama called "We Own the Night". Mike enjoyed how he and Dela's arms touched throughout the movie. After the movie, Dela dropped Mike off at his car, where they kissed goodnight. Mike retrieved a small aloe plant called Stevie that he had bought for her. When he got home, he texted Dela and told her how beautiful she had looked. They were happily married at Wrightsville Beach, North Carolina a year and a half later.

Generation 5 (con't)

26. ZACHARIAH CHRISTOPHER⁵ ORBIN (Jannette Marie⁴ Chasteen, Paul Chester³ Chasteen, Chester Arthur² Chasteen, Ida Belle¹ Phelps) was born on 21 May 1973 in Soul, Soul-t'ukpyolsi, South Korea. He married (1) NANCY RUTH DONNAN, daughter of David Thomas Donnan and Fern Elizabeth Wilkins on 28 Sep 1996 (Home of Nancy's parents in IL). She was born on 05 Aug 1972 in Decatur, Macon, Illinois, USA. He married (2) ELOISE JEAN DAHL, daughter of Gerald Ernes Dahl and Carol Jean Rice on 31 Oct 2009 in Nashville, Davidson, Tennessee, USA. She was born on 11 Nov 1976 in Chicago, Cook, Illinois, USA (.).

Notes for Zachariah Christopher Orbin:

It's hard to say how it all began, all I know is that one day we knew we were in love and there was no turning back. In fact I think we fell in love at the same moment, it still makes my heart flutter thinking about it. From the time of establishing the utmost feelings for each other only one thing remained-location. He had to figure out a way to get me to Tennessee. How does a boy go about this? I still wonder how he thought he was going to get a girl born and raised in Chicago to move down South. At that point in my life, about two years ago, I wasn't sure that I would ever live outside that city. Of course I had entertained the idea, but nothing had come to fruition, or seemed like it would be worth it. Then my whole perspective changed with Zach in my life. The truth is that it only took several sincere long gazes, him asking and assuring me that it was all that he wanted, and would do anything to help make it happen. And he did. Zach has never broken his word with me, has always been there for me, and loved me without a question or doubt.(definite marriage material:) So, when he got on one knee there was hardly a need for the question, an instant "yes" blurted out of my mouth before I knew it. Although, I did have an inkling what was about to happen. Not wanting to create false expectations for myself I did my best rein in my thoughts wondering if this was the moment-or not. Unable to calm myself or or shrug off my gut feeling, I waited to see what would happen. When he put the song on "Love Me Tender" I was assured as I stood there nervously doing a few dishes. In that brief moment I found that I could barely keep standing, my knees were shaking so bad. Before I knew it I was wearing the shiniest ring known to man, and by the end of the longest minute of my life my dream had come true that I will marry the man I love.
