This story was written by Randa Gay Talley:

I just wanted to share the story from Granny, Mae Maxine Peters, on a visit as I passed through town once, going to an interview for an airline. She told me of when Mama Alice [Mary Alice Phelps Peters] told her she wasn't 'really' her mother. Granny was still little...about 9 then. She told her Olga [Ova Olga Peters] was really her mother and Granny said she ran out of the house refusing to believe it... having been so shaken by it, they never mentioned it again! at all...for her entire life, until Granny decided to share it to her grown grandchildren...but I think only Mama's (Joyce Nell Amacker Talley) kids were told.

She also told me that Mama Alice forbade contact with Bilbo? (Who we are pretty sure is the scoundrel)... but she found a whole stack of cards hidden under the seat of a car someone had in the family. It was letters and postcards and all the postcards had a clock on them...that must've been a secret message between them. Mama Alice burned them all. What I wouldn't do to have those cards!! ..But as a Mother, the pain she was put through by her child, I am sure I would have done the very same and not thought one second about historical anything! This story makes for a very good part in a book I hope to write one day :)

Granny also told me once they (or either this was Olga & her siblings' story, I've since forgotten this major detail, sadly)...but were left at home while the adults went into town on horse & buggy. A sweet lady came to babysit them. As this kind stranger took care of them for the best part of the day, the parents returned. As they came to the house, the lady was seen to be looking toward heaven and simply vanished & they could not find her. Sweet story and granny told it with precise, sincere truth in her voice...as matter of fact and nothing less.

Granny told me that as Olga was a teenager, she became quite a Preacher at some of the tent meetings and brush arbor gatherings. I about fell off my chair to learn that, but it was something that I could tell made Granny very proud, but felt she'd definitely walked away from a tremendous call on her life as a minister. If I'd not heard Granny tell me this, I'd not believe it. "Aunt" Olga was very different than Granny, in regard to being a devoted & vocal Christian. I hear myself sometimes mimic Granny as she ends things she was doing with a reverential "Jesus, Jesus".

Granny had severe osteoporosis in her aging years, but the women of Poplarville must've known who my grandmother was, as a lady of God. Granny told me she'd met one of the ladies from the Baptist Church while working at the hospital as a nurse's aide. This lady was in charge of the women's bible study. She asked Granny to come speak after having spoken with Granny to realize she held deep faith in God. I was very surprised to hear Granny would do this! She told me how she shared with them how God healed her and they all cried as she told her story...how God healed her of pain in her legs that hurt so badly & she had heard the Lord tell her to open His Word, lay it on her legs and she'd be healed. Granny said it was a total miraculous deliverance from pain. As Granny ended up in a nursing home in the end, the doctors x-rayed her legs and marveled at how it could even be possible for her to have walked, the bones were so porous.

Generation 1 (con't)

She left us a very rich legacy of faith & we are very thankful to have come from such a spiritual legacy!!

the railroad was constructed through the area in 1879, the Stapleton depot was named "Sunbright," and the name was eventually applied to the entire town. Andrew treaveled from Burrville to Sunbright to catch the train to Lincoln ,Kentucky where he met Mary Alice Phelps, Married her and returned to Burrville.

Sharon Jerry Alexander Bond wrote: "Mom (Shirley A Peters B:16 Apr 1926) remembers how her grandfather, Andrew, used to pack his camera and tripod over his shoulder and walk off into the piney woods....He would be gone for a couple of days taking pictures. Uncle Ray (Raymer Phelps Peters Jr B: 26 Sep 1920:) , her oldest brother and Andrew's grandson, was a great photographer as well. He took literally thousands of pictures and slides. "

Afer looking at my census data it looks like Andrew Layton moved from Morgan County Tennessee between 1908-1909 to St Tammany, Louisiana, USA this is based on the fact that his daughter Reba was about age 2 in 1910 and she was born in Tennessee. Shirley Ardell Peters Alexander estimated that Andrew moved his family to Poplarville, Mississippi about 1914.

Andrew was blind in one eye...In our family, my mother, Shirley Ardell Peters, and her siblings called them Pop Peters and Mom Alice instead of grandfather and grandmother...they were my great-grandparents....I never knew them stated Sharon Jerry Alexander Bond.

This story was written by Randa Gay Talley:

I just wanted to share the story from Granny, Mae Maxine Peters, on a visit as I passed through town once, going to an interview for an airline. She told me of when Mama Alice [Mary Alice Phelps Peters] told her she wasn't 'really' her mother. Granny was still little...about 9 then. She told her Olga [Ova Olga Peters] was really her mother and Granny said she ran out of the house refusing to believe it... having been so shaken by it, they never mentioned it again! at all...for her entire life, until Granny decided to share it to her grown grandchildren...but I think only Mama's (Joyce Nell Amacker Talley) kids were told.

She also told me that Mama Alice forbade contact with Bilbo? (Who we are pretty sure is the scoundrel)... but she found a whole stack of cards hidden under the seat of a car someone had in the family. It was letters and postcards and all the postcards had a clock on them...that must've been a secret message between them. Mama Alice burned them all. What I wouldn't do to have those cards!! ..But as a Mother, the pain she was put through by her child, I am sure I would have done the very same and not thought one second about historical anything! This story makes for a very good part in a book I hope to write one day :)

Granny also told me once they (or either this was Olga & her siblings' story, I've since forgotten this major detail, sadly)...but were left at home while the adults went into town on horse & buggy. A sweet lady came to babysit them. As this kind stranger took care of them for the best part of the day, the parents returned. As they came to the house, the lady was seen to be looking toward heaven and simply vanished & they could not find her. Sweet story and granny told it with precise, sincere truth in her voice...as matter of fact and nothing less.

Granny told me that as Olga was a teenager, she became quite a Preacher at some of the tent meetings and brush arbor gatherings. I about fell off my chair to learn that, but it was something that I could tell made Granny very proud, but felt she'd definitely walked away from a tremendous call on her life as a minister. If I'd not heard Granny tell me this, I'd not believe it. "Aunt" Olga was very different than Granny, in regard to being a devoted & vocal Christian. I hear myself sometimes mimic Granny as she ends things she was doing with a reverential "Jesus, Jesus".

Granny had severe osteoporosis in her aging years, but the women of Poplarville must've known who my grandmother was, as a lady of God. Granny told me she'd met one of the ladies from the Baptist Church while working at the hospital as a nurse's aide. This lady was in charge of the women's bible study. She asked Granny to come speak after having spoken with Granny to realize she held deep faith in God. I was very surprised to hear Granny would do this! She told me how she shared with them how God healed her and they all cried as she told her story...how God healed her of pain in her legs that hurt so badly & she had heard the Lord tell her to open His Word, lay it on her legs and she'd be healed. Granny said it was a total miraculous deliverance from pain. As Granny ended up in a nursing home in the end, the doctors x-rayed her legs and marveled at how it could even be possible for her to have walked, the bones were so porous.

She left us a very rich legacy of faith & we are very thankful to have come from such a spiritual legacy!!

Sharon Jerry Alexander states: Granddaddy (Raymer Phelp Peters) and Uncle Ray (Raymer Phelps Peters Jr) went to work on the Panama canal. I have a great old picture of Granddaddy coming home with his suitcase in his hand and his hat on his head. There may be one of Ray as well. Ray was in the FBI after serving in WWII....He graduated Purdue University and went into the FBI. Before he retired, he was director of the FBI in Tucson, Arizona, for many years. He was also an artist. Remarkable man. I cannot believe you found this ship information!

Sharon Alexander Bond provided the following :Donald Terry Peters (as seen in the picture of the entire family):

He never married, and after college and the air force, he lived in Puerto Rico for many years as a teacher on the naval base there at Roosevelt Roads.

Two nephews were named after him: Annette's son Donald Phelps and Richard's son Donald Reginald. When Uncle Don died in his fifties, he left all his worldly goods to Richard's son Don, stipulating that if Don preceded him in death, then Annette's son Don was to inherit (a good sum of money and land in Puerto Rico and Louisiana).

His reason as stated in the will was that a person would like for his name to live on. If both had preceded him in death, the inheritance would have gone to Southeastern Louisiana University for scholarships for students from Washington Parish named Don! At any rate, Richard's son Don was underage when he inherited everything.

Hi Paul Thank you for all of your great research. All that I know about Trafton's early years is that he was born in central Tenn. in 1903

(near the birth place of Alvin York, I've heard stories that he was related to Sgt York). His parents and he moved to the Picayune area where Trafton first met Lena, his soon to be wife singing in the Church choir. They married and Trafton built a house in Yamacraw (I think the house still stands) where the 4 children were born. Some years later Trafton and his family moved to Clinton, MS where he was employed at Mississippi College until retirement.

The house in Clinton still stands and is at 601 Capitol Street. Dad has told me many stories of Trafton's great skill in carpentry and hunting.

While living near the swamp at Yamacraw he caught alligator, deer etc. I've never heard of his dad and him building spiral stair cases, but with his carpentry skills it's very possible. I know he built the house at Yamacraw by himself from the ground up. I hope this was a help. My cousin Val

Holston has done research in Trafton's background I'm sure he could be of great help. If you would like to talk to my dad, Wayne (Trafton's son) give him a call. Thanks again! Adam

Trafton raised his family in Yamicraw, MS near crossroads by the Pine Grove Baptist Church.

Generation 2 (con't)

Trafton was a Carpenter. He became head of Maintains at Mississippi College, after moving to Clinton MS. Trafton had a brain tumor removed. His grandson, Benjamin Valiant "Val" Holston, tells the following story:

"Trafton killed a 21 foot alligator that ate the family dog. He took the Hyde to New Orleans to sell. He then bought alligator shoes and purses for his wife Lena and daughters Dot & Mary Belle. He later killed 19' Alligator and showed me (Val) their skull. They had 20 acres and a home next to the swamp near Picayune, MS. Mom (Mary Belle) would walk across the branch on a catwalk that Trafton had built. She would find Sundews and Venus flytraps on the other side. We lived there for a year. I remember finding the Venus flytraps. They had a lot of blueberry bushes growing there."

MAE MAXINE'S STORY: This story was written by Randa Gay Talley, daughter of Joyce Nell Amacker

I just wanted to share the story from Granny, Mae Maxine Peters, on a visit as I passed through town once, going to an interview for an airline. She told me of when Mama Alice told her she wasn't 'really' her mother. Granny was still little...about 9 then. She told her Olga was really her mother and Granny said she ran out of the house refusing to believe it... having been so shaken by it, they never mentioned it again! AT all...for her entire life, until Granny decided to share it to her grown grandchildren...but I think only Mama's (Joyce Nell Amacker Talley) kids were told.

She also told me that Mama Alice forbade contact with Bilbo? (Who we are pretty sure is the scoundrel)... but she found a whole stack of cards hidden under the seat of a car someone had in the family. It was letters and postcards and all the postcards had a clock on them...that must've been a secret message between them. Mama Alice burned them all. What I wouldn't do to have those cards!! ..But as a Mother, the pain she was put through by her child, I am sure I would have done the very same and not thought one second about historical anything! This story makes for a very good part in a book I hope to write one day :)

Granny also told me once they (or either this was Olga & her siblings' story, I've since forgotten this major detail, sadly)...but were left at home while the adults went into town on horse & buggy. A sweet lady came to babysit them. As this kind stranger took care of them for the best part of the day, the parents returned. As they came to the house, the lady was seen to be looking toward heaven and simply vanished & they could not find her. Sweet story and granny told it with precise, sincere truth in her voice...as matter of fact and nothing less.

Granny told me that as Olga was a teenager, she became quite a Preacher at some of the tent meetings and brush arbor gatherings. I about fell off my chair to learn that, but it was something that I could tell made Granny very proud, but felt she'd definitely walked away from a tremendous call on her life as a minister. If I'd not heard Granny tell me this, I'd not believe it. "Aunt" Olga was very different than Granny, in regard to being a devoted & vocal Christian. I hear myself sometimes mimic Granny as she ends things she was doing with a reverential "Jesus, Jesus".

Granny had severe osteoporosis in her aging years, but the women of Poplarville must've known who my grandmother was, as a lady of God. Granny told me she'd met one of the ladies from the Baptist Church while working at the hospital as a nurse's aide. This lady was in charge of the women's bible study. She asked Granny to come speak after having spoken with Granny to realize she held deep faith in God. I was very surprised to hear Granny would do this! She told me how she shared with them how God healed her and they all cried as she told her story...how God healed her of pain in her legs that hurt so badly & she had heard the Lord tell her to open His Word, lay it on her legs and she'd be healed. Granny said it was a total miraculous deliverance from pain. As Granny ended up in a nursing home in the end, the doctors x-rayed her legs and marveled at how it could even be possible for her to have walked, the bones were so porous.

She left us a very rich legacy of faith & we are very thankful to have come from such a spiritual legacy!!

Randa Talley Saddest story I've ever heard.. Granny(Maxine Amacker) told me that he saw angels coming to get him as he breathed his last breath.

My mama(Joyce Nell) was about 14 & he was 8 when he was burned from pouring Kerosene on a fire. He ran and she nor Mama Susie (Amacker) couldn't catch him until he reached the road from the house. He lived 5 painful years from burns that never healed. He was making a fire for his grandmother in a fireplace.

Notes for Ruby Nell Peters:

I will tell you something that very few people know. In 1947 I was in the Army Air Corps stationed at Keesler AFB in Biloxi, MS. I was 19 years old and on weekends my identical twin brother and I would visit Orice Lester Peters in Poplarville. I dated Ruby Nell Peters. My brother John Thomas dated Ruby Nell's girlfriend. We went to the movies on Saturday night. Ruby Nell was a beautiful girl. I was driving our 1-Ton 1940 panel truck. All 4 of us were sitting on the wide bench up front. As I turned into her girlfriend driveway, I discovered I had no breaks. Her house was at the end of the driveway about 200 feet down the driveway. I had no emergency break so I down shifted to slow the truck down. I didn't want to run into her house so turned left across her front yard. I ran over a couple small pine trees which brought the vehicle to a halt.. That is when I discovered my 3 passengers bailed out. in the front yard.

Notes for Raymer Phelps Peters Jr:

Note from Sharon Alexander Bond

Grandmother (Ida Lou Williams) used to tell the story of how Ray almost died as an infant because he couldn't keep food down. My grandfather(Raymer Phelps Peters Sr) always loved to snack on cheese and crackers. While snacking one evening, Granddaddy gave Ray a tiny bit of cheese...he ate it and kept it down. Grandmother then fed him cheese every day with little bits of cracker and he thrived. Strange how you remember little stories like that! He was the FBI man, for sure. He was an avid photographer, artist, naturalist, and an engineer. (Purdue University) The painting you see above the two of them is one of his. One hangs in the FBI offices in Washington DC. Ray and Shirley had a beautiful daughter named Nora Ray who died in 1965 when she was 18. She was hit by a drunken driver. Shirley died in her sixties of a brain tumor. Doug has one son, Ryan. Uncle Ray died of Alzheimer's about five years ago. He was an avid photographer, artist, naturalist, and an engineer. One of his paintings hangs in the FBI offices in Washington DC.

Sharon Alexander Bond writes Uncle Ray(Raymer Phelps Peters Jr) was a small man who had great courage...His son,( Raymer) Douglas Peters, lives in Phoenix, AZ. We went to see him 18 months ago and I'll send pictures soon. He has been very successful...very much like his father. He's an engineer and is as meticulous as his dad. Wonderful sense of humor, too. Strange how you remember little stories like that! He was the FBI man, for sure.

Notes for Gary Eltrov Alexander:

Shoran Alexander Bond said that when they were in Germany : "We had Louise, who was from Austria. She had been a nanny most of her life. She lived with us both in Hanau and Friedberg. I have a vivid memory of getting on the train to Bremerhaven to return to the US. Louise came with us to say goodbye and gave us chocolates to take with us. It was a sad goodbye. Mom and Dad wanted her to come home with us, but she was getting old and wanted to return to Austria. We loved her very much."

The following was written by Sharon Alexander Bond:

My dad was not drafted, but enlisted at the age of seventeen in 1934. Having endured the death of his mother, Ida Eugenia Amacker Alexander, in 1930 when he was thirteen, he was taken in by his maternal aunt, Mary Alice Amacker Peters. Because of the Great Depression, Gary was not able to stay in school, but had to do farm labor to help support himself and his younger sister. He only completed the eighth grade. After four years of living in the home of Aunt Mary and Uncle Lec (Orian Lester Peters), he joined the army. The year would have been 1934. Times were hard, but Gary worked hard to become a good soldier. He became the youngest master sergeant in the US Army before beginning Officer Candidate School in late 1943. He had trained many soldiers preparing to go to war before he himself joined the fight after obtaining his commission in December of 1944 at the age of 27. He was sent to the Pacific Theatre that December and remained there until after the end of the war. He was well known early on for his boxing skills.

Not only was my father kept in the army as an officer, he was never asked to leave the army during the fifties for lack of a college degree! He, in fact, chose to retire to give his children roots. After he retired, (**1958) President Eisenhower requested that he return to duty about a year later. He was given the option of staying in the service or retiring after serving the call to duty. He wanted very much to allow the four of us children and my mother to be near family and so made his decision to retire permanently. I have the letter requesting him to return to active duty although I cannot recall what global crisis precipitated it. My father was a brilliant man with a distinguished service career. He always said that the army gave him his education. He was an avid reader and, of his four children, two became teachers, one is a retired attorney, and one works for the US Marshall's service.

While in Germany, Dad was in the 29th Field Artillery...4th Infantry Division working with anit-aircraft. Other than that, I don't know. I do know that he started out in the horse-drawn artillery. He was called back in to help write the army reserve program for the state of Mississippi. His last duty station was in Jackson, MS, working with the reserves in Jackson and the ROTC programs at the high school.

Written by Paul c chasteen: Gary was in the Army retired after 22 years as a Major. He enlisted and later attended OCS in 1944. The family lived with him in Korea. Gary had to drop out of school at the age of 13. When Gary's mother, Ida Jane Amacker Alexander, died he went to live with Orice Lester Peters and Mary Alice Amacker Peters until he was 17. Gary at the age of 24 married Shirley Ardell Peters when she was 15 years old. Her mother Ida Lou Williams Peters gave her daughter, Shirley, permission to marry Gary. They were married at Fort Sill, Comanche, Oklahoma on 4 April 1942. Gary was a Master Sergeant when they got married. In 1944 he graduated from OCS. Gary served in the South Pacific during the war. For Gary to be retained in the army as an officer after 1945 was because he was an outstanding officer. So many officers in 1945 were allowed to stay in the service but they had to revert back to their former enlisted rank.

Info furnished by Sharon Alexander Bond.

....Betty is buried in Baker, LA beside her husband James Starns who preceded her in death by 17 years. Betty married him when she was only fifteen....Mother made her wedding gown and those of the bridesmaids as well as their headpieces. I was eight years old when Betty married Jimmy in the First Baptist Church in Franklinton. She was always a favorite aunt of mine and was a great beauty. She was a tiny woman who was about the sweetest girl on the planet. Life was not good to her. Janice probably has that wedding album. Jimmy's family owned the Starns' Drug Store in Bogalusa. His mother was extremely cruel to Betty....often saying mean things that made Betty cry. Mrs. Starns was a very snobby woman. I knew her when I was in high school and swore to myself that I would never be cruel or mean to any daughter-in-law of mine. When Jimmy passed away, the Starns family had nothing more to do with Betty. The children of Betty and Jimmy are all very sweet natured, but I have not seen them in about fifteen years. I did not attend her funeral, but Mom did.

She died on 10 Jul 2010 in Carriere, Pearl River, Mississippi, USA (New Country Living Inc. in Carriere). She married (1) DR. LAMAR LEO LANCASTER in 1960 (vp ups Altana). Notes for Justine Annette Peters:

Sharon Bond furnished the following information on March 12, 2010" Annette is the youngest daughter of Raymer and Ida Lou Williams Peters. Her full name is Justine Annette Peters Lancaster Wallace. She was a nurse anesthetist for many years, has three sons and five grandchildren, but she is in the final stages of Alzheimer's right now. She lives in an assisted living home here in Carriere. Annette is closer to my age than to Mom's, so we have been more like sisters than an aunt and niece!

Raymer's daughter was named Justine Annette Peters. . She is mother's (Shirley Ardell Peters) youngest sister and is suffering from Alzheimer's. She is only 73. I sent you a picture of her with her mother and dad at her wedding. She married first Dr. Leo Lamar Lancaster, an oral surgeon. They had three sons...David Lamar Lancaster, Donald Phelps Lancaster, and Douglas Dunn Lancaster. They were divorced after about ten years of marriage. She went to anesthesia school and became a nurse anesthetist. She then moved to Franklinton, Louisiana, and worked in the hospital there for many years. She met and married Nathan Wallace, a dairy farmer. So, her full name would be Justine Annette Peters Lancaster Wallace, but she is known as Annette P. Wallace on tax forms and such. Nathan has been a wonderful husband to her and a great father to the three boys. Their home is just around the block from ours since they retired here as well. She was born in Poplarville.

Val,

1. what were the final arrangements for your mother? It was put on facebook that there was going to be a Memorial service for mom on May 15th,2012 at Unity Baptist Church in Georgetown, Ms. Of which took place. Does she have a headstone?My sister and I picked one out ordered it online and it is on its way there now. At the time we had a temporary cross to place at her grave.. She had asked me the last time we talked about where she wanted to put her ashes she told me by my dad.

Cyndi's response to Paul:I miss my talks with Mary Belle very much. Mom mentioned you called several times when I came to see her and I believe she looked forward to talking to you too Paul. Yes that was a very sweet present Val gave to mom. She loved to keep in contact with everyone. I tried to see her at least 3 times a week but called her the days I couldn't go. She was satisfied when I called her just as long as she could hear from one of us. Towards the end she wasn't remembering much at all though. She would confuse my daughter with me. I miss her too but know she is safe with the Lord.

Also Happy Memorial Day to you and I really appreciate all the service men and women who have put their lives on the line for our freedom. Living outside my beloved country for 25 years helps one to see this country even with its problems is blessed.

your cousin Paul

He had his private pilot license when he was younger. He was married and divorced twice. My mom was his first wife. He did not have any children with his second wife. He lived with us when he became ill with Alzheimer. He fought a great battle for about 7 years. He is now in an Alzheimer facility in Hattiesburg Mississippi in the latter stage..

Deborah Peters Harris tells about her and her dad, Alvin Wayne Peters, visited her Uncle Lowell Kane "Bud" Peters October 2010:

Yes, we had a good visit with Bud. When we came in you could tell he was trying to place who we were. He kept looking at me and looking at Dad (Wayne) and I didn't think he really made the connection - until we went to leave. He had a lot of trouble trying to form sentences but we talked with him anyway, and as we were leaving Dad leaned down close to him, with his hand on his shoulder, and said: I love you. Bud looked up at him and said: "I love you too." I guess it just goes to show that love never fades. Best Wishes! Deb.

Alvin Wayne Peters was the first to bring registered Appaloosa horses into Mississippi in the 1950's. He helped instruct local vet's in the new found art of artificial insemination during the 1970's. Dad developed ground breaking techniques in helping needy mares give birth to their colts; he specialized in evaluating the development of an embryo. Dad dedicated years of study to the art of selectively breeding horses to obtain betterment of the breed. Dad was the first Mississippian to sell and transport a horse from MS to Brazil South America. Early in his profession, when he couldn't afford the price of a stud service to breed his mares to other farm's stallions, dad would paint a portrait of the owner's stallion in exchange for the breeding fee.

Other bands: Lost N Found, Andy Smith, Chris Leblanc, Stealing Cane, Cracker Jackson, and a million others. I'm a drummer down to my soul... The gift of music is something very sacred and should be cherished. God didn't give this particular gift to everyone, so I definitely consider myself one of the lucky ones. I am very fortunate to be playing GMS drums, the best drums on Earth. I have a great relationship with the greatest staff in the business. Not only do I have the support of the best drums made, I have good friends I can pick up the phone and share the excitement of playing drums with at any time! GMS is the real deal! I am very proud and honored to be a part of their family.

Bio Im a great person & you will never meet another like me. Im from Hattiesburg & Im about on my way out. I've been through a lot and am through with negative people. I want to be around only positive reinforcements. I have been around people too long who just want to put me down. Im living my life for me & will not sacrafice any part of myself for someone else. Its not worth it. I never admit or deny anything it makes me more interesting. God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, the courage to change the things I can, and the weaponry to make the difference. I dont like defining myself. I just am.

- iii. CRYSTAL LYN NOBLES was born on 28 Apr 1987. She married Pete Pucciarello on 14 Nov 2002. He was born on 04 Nov 1986 in Galveston, Texas, USA.

Notes for Crystal Lyn Nobles:

I first met Pete in 10th grade Culinary Class. We sat right across from each other. One of my best friends at the time was dating his brother, so he made conversation with me by talking about them. We have been together for almost 8 years now. And we grow closer and closer every day. I was 15 years old when I met Pete at North Forrest High School in Hattiesburg. I moved to TX about a year ago when I just turned 22. Pete is from Galveston TX and now all of his family lives out here in Fort Worth. So we decided to move out here together. Better opportunities basically. As of right now i'm just working at the Sheraton Arlington hotel, but plan on going back to school. I want to be in leasing, or loans like my dad. Pete works for Belfor Restoration. Its a company that when a company catches on fire, or floods or something like that they come in and tear everything out and get it fixed. I'll send some pictures of Bree when I get back home. (6/27/2010

Notes for Sharon Jerry Alexander:

Sharon Alexander Bond That was a great family! Loved going to Uncle Lec's[Orice Lester Peters] and [his wife] Aunt Mary's when Dad [Gary Eltrov Alexander ] was home on leave.

Uncle Lec was my granddaddy's brother[Raymer Phelps Peters] on my mother's side, but Aunt Mary [Poplarville, Pearl River, Mississippi, USA] was my grandmother's sister on my dad's side. That's how my parents knew each other...Aunt Mary took my dad and his sister Mernice to raise after their mother [her sister Ida] died. My dad loved them both.....

Sharon wrote: "Sounds like a lot of Poplarville,MS people! My dad's maternal aunt married my mother's paternal uncle. While Mom and Dad were not related, they were cousins to the children of their aunt and uncle. In fact, that is how they met....while visiting the aunt and uncle to see their cousins!"

Richard is Mother's youngest brother....Richard Dallas Peters....he lived across the creek from us and we took care of him during the last years of his life. He was only two years older than I. He and my husband were best friends from childhood on....that's how I met my husband

"I remember taking the bus from the train station to the ship...the America...Looking at the ship from the bus was an amazing experience for a young girl. It was HUGE! Quite a fascinating voyage back to the US. When we pulled into New York harbor, there were officers and their families all around us on the deck. Many of the men had tears in their eyes when we spotted the statue of liberty. It was the first time I had ever seen grown men cry."

I think all students, college-bound or not, should have to take consumer math. Learning by doing is not a good idea when it comes to budgets, taxes, buying cars, credit, etc.! I wish I had had a course like that before college.

As for my teaching years....there were sixteen in all. I started in 1964 when I was only twenty years old. Dad's alcoholism had gotten so bad that he had to be hospitalized and there was no money for school. As it happened, though, NASA had just located at Stennis Space Center and St. Tammany Parish was crying for teachers. I was hired to teach third grade in Pearl River, Louisiana. It was one of the greatest experiences of my life. I taught 36 children who ranged in age from seven to thirteen years of age. After that year, I married Chris, but continued to teach with a T (temporary) certificate for three more years. I returned to school at the age of 32...and finished my education degree in Speech and English when I was 34. I taught another six years at Hammond High School. Loved it. When we moved to Opelousas, I taught at the parochial school there and at Leonville High School in special education. After moving to Georgia, I taught special education for two years and English for one year at South Forsyth High School in Cumming, Georgia....We then moved to Thibodaux, Louisiana, where I taught special education again and finished teaching English to seventh and ninth graders. It was not a happy time for me, but I completed my teaching years there. The principal was not a good administrator and the experience was not a happy one. I loved teaching speech and drama at HHS most of all. Many of my FB friends are old students from the early eighties! When I left there, my sister Phyllis taught there for sixteen years.

I worked on the KC-135's at Fairchild AFB Spokane, WA & in Okinawa Japan at Kadena AFB. It was a KC-135Q that refueled the SR-171's. I was in a launch truck like a UPS truck to make sure they were able to take off & then we debriefed them for maintaince when they landed. A Russian MIG came after a SR-71 that was refueling from a KC-135Q. The Blackbird disconnected & took off at Mach 5, so the tanker was now a sitting duck. The boom operator told me that he lowered the refueling boom down to the MIG & he sprayed the Blackbirds Nitromethane fuel down the intakes of the MIG & it blew it apart in a huge fireball. Normal jets run on Kerosene.

enjamin V James Holston During the Vietnam War, we had the 5 nuclear B-52's on the runway with the engines running for a week. Nixon had them ready to take off with their nuclear bombs. That was scary, because we were minutes from a nuclear war.

We have been married for 37 years in 2011, and I am happy to say that we have always had an awesome marriage. Tim had been praying for a Christian wife for 7 yrs, when we finally met, I was not a born again believer, but my sister in-law Cindi prayed for my salvation and eventually I became a believer, at which time the Lord literally told my husband, that I was to be his wife. To make a long story short, we have strived to live in relationship to God, so that we can know how to properly love each other. We want to thank you, for giving us Mary belle's tel #, we had not had long distance for a long period of time, so we were unable to call her. She didn't seem to know that she was talking to her son Tim, the only one she seemed to mention and remember well, was her oldest son, Ben Val. At any rate we shall continue to stay in touch with her. We would love to talk to you in person sometime, if you don't mind, our telephone # is (509)233-0229, if you send us yours maybe we can catch up to each other sometime, and we can really get to know each other better. We are glad that you enjoy our grandchildren, we are terribly proud of them, and love them immensely.

I was working and running a little behind schedule and when I showed up - there was Stephanie in overall's and a Winnie the Pooh jacket and her hair in a pony tail. I couldn't believe it. But something clicked - they were married in no time! Doss is 6'9" tall and she is pretty short and they quite a couple.

Divorced 5/98 :-))    This story was written by Randa Gay Talley:

I just wanted to share the story from Granny, Mae Maxine Peters, on a visit as I passed through town once, going to an interview for an airline. She told me of when Mama Alice [Mary Alice Phelps Peters] told her she wasn't 'really' her mother. Granny was still little...about 9 then. She told her Olga [Ova Olga Peters] was really her mother and Granny said she ran out of the house refusing to believe it... having been so shaken by it, they never mentioned it again! at all...for her entire life, until Granny decided to share it to her grown grandchildren...but I think only Mama's (Joyce Nell Amacker Talley) kids were told.

She also told me that Mama Alice forbade contact with Bilbo? (Who we are pretty sure is the scoundrel)... but she found a whole stack of cards hidden under the seat of a car someone had in the family. It was letters and postcards and all the postcards had a clock on them...that must've been a secret message between them. Mama Alice burned them all. What I wouldn't do to have those cards!! ..But as a Mother, the pain she was put through by her child, I am sure I would have done the very same and not thought one second about historical anything! This story makes for a very good part in a book I hope to write one day :)

Granny also told me once they (or either this was Olga & her siblings' story, I've since forgotten this major detail, sadly)...but were left at home while the adults went into town on horse & buggy. A sweet lady came to babysit them. As this kind stranger took care of them for the best part of the day, the parents returned. As they came to the house, the lady was seen to be looking toward heaven and simply vanished & they could not find her. Sweet story and granny told it with precise, sincere truth in her voice...as matter of fact and nothing less.

Granny told me that as Olga was a teenager, she became quite a Preacher at some of the tent meetings and brush arbor gatherings. I about fell off my chair to learn that, but it was something that I could tell made Granny very proud, but felt she'd definitely walked away from a tremendous call on her life as a minister. If I'd not heard Granny tell me this, I'd not believe it. "Aunt" Olga was very different than Granny, in regard to being a devoted & vocal Christian. I hear myself sometimes mimic Granny as she ends things she was doing with a reverential "Jesus, Jesus".

Granny had severe osteoporosis in her aging years, but the women of Poplarville must've known who my grandmother was, as a lady of God. Granny told me she'd met one of the ladies from the Baptist Church while working at the hospital as a nurse's aide. This lady was in charge of the women's bible study. She asked Granny to come speak after having spoken with Granny to realize she held deep faith in God. I was very surprised to hear Granny would do this! She told me how she shared with them how God healed her and they all cried as she told her story...how God healed her of pain in her legs that hurt so badly & she had heard the Lord tell her to open His Word, lay it on her legs and she'd be healed. Granny said it was a total miraculous deliverance from pain. As Granny ended up in a nursing home in the end, the doctors x-rayed her legs and marveled at how it could even be possible for her to have walked, the bones were so porous.

She left us a very rich legacy of faith & we are very thankful to have come from such a spiritual legacy!!
