Valarie Chasteen provided following info:

There is nothing in this record to indicate that Paulina's maiden name was anything. The records I've kept (and given you) say Henry's mother's maiden name WAS Hardin. One of the shortcomings of my research has been that I haven't always documented the source of my data very well. Here is what I documented on this particularly difficult link in the chain, Henry Chasteen.

Someone told us he was married to a woman named Matilda Coleman Stanford. We didn't remember who said this (we thought it was Jim and Mona Chasteen, but they denied it), and never found out who it was. Others denied this was the name of his wife.

The Ida Belle Phelps' family bible shows Mrs. Percilla Chasteen, died "12 May 1912". According to Chester Arthur Chasteen and his wife Madie, she was the mother of James Raymond Chasteen. Source: Chuck Griep interview with them July 4, 1989

In Sept 1989, we searched Round Hill cemetery pretty thoroughly for a monument to Henry Chasteen, but found none. Of course, 1932 was at the height of the depression and the Chasteens were not well off, so they may not have purchased a monument. We were not able to check the cemetery records.

In July 1992, received a copy of Henry Chasteen's death certificate from Angie Burden. The vital statistics had been filled out "J.R. Chasteen" (i.e., James Raymond]. It contradicted some of the info we already thought we had, such as the birthplace being in Kentucky, not West Virginia. His wife's name was listed as Ocie (? - not very readable) Chasteen. It also changed his birth year from 1856 to 1861.

Further info from the death certificate: Residence: 2110 S. State (same as J.R. Chasteen] Married (not Widowed) at time of death Age: 71 years, 5 months, 17 days Profession: Farmer, Retired Father: unknown Mother: maiden name Hardin (?), born in Kentucky

Priscilla Chasteen Obit 1 May 1912 , Lincoln County, Ky Mrs. Chasteen Dies in the West End
Mrs. Priscilla Chasteen, beloved Wife of Henry Chasteen, fell asleep to awaken, some bright morning amidst that city that has of undations. Whose maker and builder is God. After a beautiful life of more than 65 years, like a golden sheaf of grain, came to its end May 1, 1912. She was born November 21, 1847, in Mercer county, where she resided most of her life. She was married October 18, 1879 to Henry Chasteen, of this county. To this Union was born one son, Raymond, who now resides in Indianapolis, Ind., and as the death came so suddenly, to the good woman, he was not able to be with her at the end. She was converted in her early life and joined the Baptist church and remained steadfast to the end. The Rev. James Edmiston, of Parksville preached the funeral amid The tears of the whole community. We wish we had room for the beautiful things that the pastor said of her at the sad, solemn hour. Cultured in intellect: refined with a most sympathetic and social nature loving music and flowers, practical housewife , delighting in the songs of Zion: and working for years in the Church and social life of her community until the last twelve or fourteen years which was prohibited by her bad health. Her long life of service and helpfulness has left fragrance among us and in the great day, many will rise up and call her blessed. So may peace be to her dust.

Harrodsburg, the county seat of Mercer County, was founded in 1774 by a stalwart band of pioneers led by James Harrod, of Pennsylvania. It was the only "colonial" city and the first permanent English settlement west of the Allegheny Mountains. Referred to as the "Birthplace of the West," Harrodsburg has a proud and remarkable heritage. From here the pioneers filtered through - conquering the wilderness and going on to populate and settle the rest of the Western frontier. Harrodsburg was first the county seat of Fincastle County, Virginia then Kentucky County Virginia. When Kentucky County was divided into the counties of Fayette, Jefferson and Lincoln, Harrodsburg was the county seat of Lincoln County, which at that time covered over a third of the soon to be state. In 1785 Mercer County was taken from Lincoln and Harrodsburg has remained the county seat of Mercer County. The Kentucky territory became a state in 1792.

Rebecca Worthley wrote the following on 3 June 2010. about the period before 1958...I remember Pop Chasteen so very well. My mother (Violet Young) worked for him and helped take care of Mrs. Ida. He would go out and sit on the back porch while we cleaned the house for him on Saturdays and do his laundry. Mother would always take Sharon, Virginia and me (Rebecca) with her. Even after Mrs. Ida passed away we still did his chores for Pop. He was a good man with a big heart.. When school came around he would help purchase our clothing for school. I remember one year, he bought me a white fleece coat, black dress with beautiful round polka-dot colors of red, yellow, white, and blue in the dress and a beautiful pair of oxford shoes to wear. I felt like a million dollars when I went to Church that Sunday. Years passed and I graduated from High School and he gave me a Bolivia Watch for graduation. He passed soon after that. I went on to finish college at Trevecca Nazarene College in Nashville, IN He did for all of us children the same. He would tell Daddy "My Young" I will do what I can do to help you family. They always help Me.! Mother loved Mrs. Ida. She always said that she was one of the sweetest ladies that God ever put on this earth. Mother and Daddy thought there was no one like the Peter's. *Uncle John and Aunt Lizzie", my sister Sharon stayed with "Aunt Lizzie" for years after Uncle John passed away. I am currently trying to find out if anyone knows anything about James and when he went to Sunbright. We loved James and Reba very much. Brother Thomas worked for James in the store after school. He was so helpful for the family. You sure had a nice family. You will never know how much we love and miss them. Many blessings to you.Rebecca. Young
