

William Esco Phelps Ax

This Ax belonged to William Esco Phelps (born June 22, 1891 – died March 7, 1983). It was used, among other things, to help build the two story log home shown in the photograph. The home was built on Gray Ridge in Blount County, Tennessee where several family members including yours truly, TAP, was born.

